

Table of Contents

About the Editor	v
About the Contributors	vii
Table of Chapters	xiii
Table of Contents	xv
Foreword	li
Acknowledgments	liii

Chapter 1 The Transfer Pricing Challenge

David B. Blair & Rocco V. Femia

The Transfer Pricing Challenge	1-2
Q 1.1 What is the transfer pricing “challenge”?	1-2
Q 1.2 Why are taxing authorities like the IRS so focused on transfer pricing?	1-3
Q 1.3 What can the IRS do to address perceived transfer pricing abuses?	1-5
Q 1.4 Does the 2017 tax reform legislation eliminate the transfer pricing challenge?	1-5
Q 1.5 Why should MNEs focus on transfer pricing?	1-6
Q 1.6 Can taxpayers avoid disputes by simply “playing it straight” with their transfer pricing?	1-7
Elements of a Transfer Pricing Strategy	1-8
Q 1.7 What are the basic elements of a transfer pricing compliance strategy?	1-8
Education, Investigation, and Issue Spotting	1-9
Q 1.7.1 What is involved in the first phase: education, investigation, and issue spotting?	1-9
Development or Evaluation of Explicit Transfer Pricing Policies	1-10
Q 1.7.2 What is involved in the second phase: development or evaluation of explicit transfer pricing policies?	1-10

TRANSFER PRICING ANSWER BOOK 2020

Evaluation of Potential Transfer Pricing Methodologies	1-11
Q 1.7.3 What is involved in the third phase: evaluation of potential transfer pricing methodologies?.....	1-11
Using Comparable Transactions to Establish an Arm’s-Length Price	1-12
Q 1.7.4 What is involved in the fourth phase: searching for and evaluating comparable transactions that can help establish an arm’s-length price?	1-12
Adopting and Reporting a Transfer Pricing Methodology	1-14
Q 1.7.5 What is involved in the fifth phase: adoption of a transfer pricing methodology and reporting the results on the tax return?	1-14
Documentation Requirements	1-15
Q 1.7.6 What is involved in the sixth phase: documentation of process and analysis used in selecting transfer pricing methodology?	1-15
Preparing a Defense of Your Transfer Pricing	1-15
Q 1.7.7 What is involved in the seventh phase: preparing to defend the return position in the event of an IRS audit or challenge?.....	1-15
Compliance As a Practical Matter	1-16
Q 1.8 Do companies typically create a full-blown transfer pricing study for every controlled transaction?.....	1-16
Q 1.9 What resources are available to a company for preparing its transfer pricing compliance strategy?	1-16
Q 1.10 Does compliance with U.S. transfer pricing rules protect the taxpayer from a foreign taxing authority’s transfer pricing adjustment?	1-17
Q 1.11 What procedures are available for resolving transfer pricing disputes?	1-18
Q 1.12 How will this book help me develop a transfer pricing strategy for my company?.....	1-20

Chapter 2 The Players: The IRS and Foreign Tax Authorities, the OECD, and the Tax Treaty Network

David B. Blair & David J. Fischer

The Internal Revenue Service	2-2
Q 2.1 Who are the important players at the IRS with respect to transfer pricing cases?	2-2
Foreign Taxing Authorities	2-3
Q 2.2 Does the IRS coordinate with foreign taxing authorities on transfer pricing issues?	2-3
Q 2.3 What is the role of the OECD on transfer pricing issues?	2-4
Congress and Treasury	2-5
Q 2.4 Who are the players on Capitol Hill and in Treasury with respect to transfer pricing issues?	2-5

Chapter 3 The U.S. Legal Framework

David B. Blair

Section 482 of the Internal Revenue Code	3-2
Q 3.1 What are the statutes governing U.S. tax disputes over transfer pricing?	3-2
The Treasury Regulations	3-5
Q 3.2 What regulatory guidance is available under section 482?	3-5
The Arm's-Length Standard	3-6
Q 3.3 What is the arm's-length standard?	3-6
Q 3.4 What does the arm's-length standard measure?	3-8
Q 3.5 What method is used to compare the results of controlled and uncontrolled transactions under the arm's-length standard?	3-9
Q 3.6 What level of precision does the IRS require in determining the "arm's-length price" of a controlled transaction?	3-11

The Commensurate With Income Standard	3-12
Q 3.7 How does the “commensurate with income” standard interact with the arm’s-length standard?	3-12
Taxpayers’ Affirmative Use of Section 482	3-14
Q 3.8 Can taxpayers use section 482 affirmatively to change the prices of transactions to lower their U.S. tax bill?	3-14

Chapter 4 Conducting a Transfer Pricing Analysis

Megan McLaughlin Kirmil

The Best Method Rule	4-3
Q 4.1 How does a taxpayer select a transfer pricing method to evaluate whether a controlled transaction is at arm’s length?	4-3
Q 4.1.1 How does a taxpayer select one transfer pricing method over other potential transfer pricing methods?	4-3
Q 4.1.2 What determines the reliability of a transfer pricing method?	4-3
Q 4.1.3 What if the application of two or more methods produces inconsistent results?	4-4
The Standards for Determining Comparability	4-6
Q 4.2 Why does comparability matter?	4-6
Q 4.3 How is comparability determined?	4-7
Q 4.4 When is an uncontrolled transaction considered comparable to a controlled transaction?	4-7
Q 4.4.1 What is a material difference?	4-7
Q 4.4.2 How do taxpayers make adjustments for material differences?	4-8
Q 4.4.3 What if adjustments for material differences cannot be made?	4-8
Q 4.5 How can you locate comparables?	4-8
Table 4-1: Common Sources of Comparables for APAs Executed in 2018.....	4-9
Functions	4-9
Q 4.6 What functions are relevant when comparing controlled and uncontrolled transactions?.....	4-9
Q 4.7 What considerations should a taxpayer be aware of with respect to the IRS’s conduct of a functional analysis?	4-11

Table of Contents

Contractual Terms	4-12
Q 4.8 What contractual terms are relevant when comparing controlled and uncontrolled transactions?.....	4-12
Q 4.9 How are contractual terms identified?	4-12
Q 4.9.1 How is economic substance determined?	4-13
Q 4.10 What contractual documents might the IRS request from the taxpayer during audit?	4-13
Risks	4-14
Q 4.11 What is risk?.....	4-14
Q 4.12 What risks are relevant when comparing controlled and uncontrolled transactions?	4-14
Q 4.13 Which controlled taxpayer bears a particular risk?	4-15
Q 4.13.1 Can taxpayers use allocations of risk to optimize their transfer pricing position?	4-16
Q 4.13.2 What factors are relevant in considering the economic substance of the allocation of risk under a contract?	4-16
Economic Conditions	4-17
Q 4.14 What economic conditions are relevant when comparing controlled and uncontrolled transactions?.....	4-17
Property or Services	4-18
Q 4.15 What considerations with respect to property or services are relevant when comparing controlled and uncontrolled transactions?.....	4-18
Q 4.15.1 How is the comparability of embedded intangibles measured?	4-18
Q 4.16 What documents related to the comparability of property or services might the IRS request from the taxpayer during audit?	4-19
Special Circumstances	4-19
Q 4.17 Are there any special circumstances that should be considered when determining comparability?.....	4-19
Q 4.17.1 How does a taxpayer's market share strategy affect comparability?	4-19
Q 4.17.2 How do different geographic markets affect comparability?	4-20
Q 4.18 What transactions ordinarily are not accepted as comparables?	4-22

TRANSFER PRICING ANSWER BOOK 2020

Q 4.19	What are common comparability adjustments?	4-23
Table 4-2:	Adjustments to Comparables and Tested Parties for APAs Executed in 2011	4-24
Quality of Data and Assumptions		4-25
Q 4.20	What data and assumptions factors affect the reliability of a particular method?.....	4-25
Q 4.20.1	How does the completeness and accuracy of the data affect the reliability of a particular method?	4-25
Q 4.20.2	How does the reliability of assumptions affect the reliability of a particular method?	4-25
Q 4.20.3	How does the sensitivity of results to deficiencies in the data used and the assumptions made affect the reliability of a particular method?	4-26
Arm's-Length Range		4-26
Q 4.21	How can you use an arm's-length range of results?.....	4-26
Q 4.22	How can you determine the arm's-length range?.....	4-26
Q 4.22.1	What is the interquartile range?.....	4-27
Q 4.23	What if a taxpayer's results are outside the arm's-length range?	4-28
Aggregation of Transactions		4-30
Q 4.24	When may transactions be aggregated for purposes of determining the arm's-length consideration for such transactions?.....	4-30
Consistency with Economic Substance		4-31
Q 4.25	May the IRS take the economic substance of a transaction into account when evaluating the transaction?	4-31
Multiple Year Data		4-32
Q 4.26	May data on uncontrolled comparables from multiple years be used?	4-32
Q 4.26.1	When is it appropriate to use data on uncontrolled comparables from multiple years?	4-33
Q 4.26.2	May an arm's-length range consist of results from multiple years?	4-33
Comparison to Rules Under OECD Guidelines		4-34
Q 4.27	Is the Best Method Rule consistent with the OECD Guidelines?	4-34

Table of Contents

Q 4.28	Do the OECD Guidelines allow for the use of more than one method?	4-35
Q 4.29	How do the comparability standards under the OECD Guidelines compare to those under the section 482 regulations?	4-36
Q 4.30	Do the OECD Guidelines allow for the use of an arm's-length range?	4-36
Appendix 4A	Internal Revenue Manual Exhibit 4.61.2-6	App. 4A-1
Appendix 4B	Internal Revenue Manual Exhibits 4.61.3-1 through 4.61.3-4	App. 4B-1

Chapter 5 Overview of Transfer Pricing Methodologies: The Best Method Rule, Transaction-Based Methods, and Profit-Based Methods

Megan McLaughlin Kirmil

Applicability of Methods	5-3
Q 5.1 Which transfer pricing methods may be used in connection with the transfer of tangible property?	5-3
Q 5.1.1 Which transfer pricing methods may be used in connection with the transfer of tangible property with embedded intangibles?	5-3
Q 5.2 Which transfer pricing methods may be used in connection with the transfer of intangible property?	5-4
Q 5.3 Which transfer pricing methods may be used in connection with the transfer of services?	5-4
Q 5.4 How should a taxpayer select which transfer pricing method to use?	5-5
Q 5.4.1 May a taxpayer use more than one uncontrolled comparable when applying a single transfer pricing method?	5-5
Q 5.4.2 What if a taxpayer obtains inconsistent results when applying two or more transfer pricing methods?	5-5
Q 5.5 Which transfer pricing methods are most commonly used?	5-6
Table 5-1: Transfer Pricing Method Used for Transfers of Tangible and Intangible Property	5-6
Table 5-2: Transfer Pricing Method Used for Services	5-6

Transaction-Based Methods	5-8
Q 5.6 What is the relationship among the CUP, CUT, and CUSP methods?.....	5-8
CUP Method	5-8
Q 5.7 What is the CUP method?.....	5-8
Q 5.7.1 What are the key comparability factors under the CUP method?	5-9
Q 5.7.2 What level of comparability is required under the CUP method?	5-9
Q 5.7.3 What evidence may be used to determine a CUP?	5-10
CUT Method	5-12
Q 5.8 What is the CUT method?.....	5-12
Q 5.8.1 What are the key comparability factors under the CUT method?	5-12
Q 5.8.2 How is the profit potential of an intangible calculated?	5-13
Q 5.8.3 What level of comparability is required under the CUT method?	5-14
The CUSP Method	5-14
Q 5.9 What is the CUSP method?.....	5-14
Q 5.9.1 What are the key comparability factors under the CUSP method?	5-14
Q 5.9.2 What level of comparability is required under the CUSP method?	5-15
Q 5.9.3 What evidence may be used to determine a CUSP?.....	5-15
Resale Price Method	5-16
Q 5.10 What is the resale price method?.....	5-16
Q 5.10.1 What are the key comparability factors under the resale price method?	5-17
Q 5.10.2 What level of comparability is required under the resale price method?	5-17
Q 5.10.3 What are the key data and assumptions factors under the resale price method?	5-18
Gross Services Margin Method	5-19
Q 5.11 What is the gross services margin method?.....	5-19
Q 5.11.1 What are the key comparability factors under the gross services margin method?.....	5-19

Table of Contents

Q 5.11.2	What level of comparability is required under the gross services margin method?.....	5-20
Q 5.11.3	What are the key data and assumptions factors under the gross services margin method?.....	5-21
Cost Plus Method		5-21
Q 5.12	What is the cost plus method?.....	5-21
Q 5.12.1	What are the key comparability factors under the cost plus method?.....	5-21
Q 5.12.2	What level of comparability is required under the cost plus method?.....	5-22
Q 5.12.3	What are the key data and assumptions factors under the cost plus method?.....	5-22
Cost of Services Plus Method		5-23
Q 5.13	What is the cost of services plus method?.....	5-23
Q 5.13.1	What are the key comparability factors under the cost of services plus method?.....	5-24
Q 5.13.2	What level of comparability is required under the cost of services plus method?.....	5-25
Q 5.13.3	What are the key data and assumptions factors under the cost of services plus method?.....	5-25
Services Cost Method (Cost Safe Harbor)		5-26
Q 5.14	What is the services cost method?.....	5-26
Q 5.14.1	What services are eligible for the SCM?.....	5-26
Q 5.14.2	What are covered services?.....	5-26
Q 5.14.3	What is an excluded activity?.....	5-27
Q 5.14.4	When is a service precluded from constituting a covered service by the business judgment rule?.....	5-27
Q 5.14.5	What constitutes the adequate maintenance of books and records?.....	5-29
Q 5.15	Can a taxpayer use the SCM for services within the scope of a shared services arrangement?.....	5-29
Q 5.15.1	May covered services under a shared services arrangement be aggregated for purposes of applying the SCM?.....	5-29
Profit-Based Methods		5-30
General		5-30
Q 5.16	How do profit-based methods differ from transactional methods?.....	5-30

TRANSFER PRICING ANSWER BOOK 2020

Comparable Profits Method (CPM)	5-30
Q 5.17 What is the CPM?.....	5-30
Q 5.17.1 Who is the tested party under the CPM?	5-31
Q 5.17.2 How is the profit level indicator selected under the CPM?.....	5-31
Q 5.17.3 What are the key comparability factors under the CPM?.....	5-32
Q 5.17.4 What level of comparability is required under the CPM?.....	5-33
Q 5.17.5 What are the key data and assumptions factors under the CPM?	5-33
Profit Split Method (PSM)	5-37
Q 5.18 What is the PSM?	5-37
Q 5.19 What is a comparable profit split?	5-37
Q 5.19.1 What are the key comparability factors under a comparable profit split?	5-38
Q 5.19.2 What are the key data and assumptions factors under a comparable profit split?	5-38
Q 5.19.3 What other factors affect reliability under a comparable profit split?	5-38
Q 5.20 What is a residual profit split method?	5-39
Q 5.20.1 What are the key comparability factors under a residual profit split method?	5-40
Q 5.20.2 What are the key data and assumptions factors under a residual profit split?	5-40
Q 5.20.3 What other factors affect reliability under the residual profit split method?	5-41
Income Method (IM)	5-42
Q 5.21 What is the income method?	5-42
Unspecified Methods	5-43
Q 5.22 When may a taxpayer apply an unspecified method?	5-43
Comparison to Methods Under OECD Guidelines	5-44
Q 5.23 What transfer pricing methods are permitted under the OECD Guidelines?.....	5-44
Q 5.23.1 Do the OECD Guidelines follow the Best Method Rule?.....	5-44
Q 5.24 How does the CPM compare to the TNMM under the OECD Guidelines?.....	5-45

Chapter 6 Identification of Controlled Transactions

Kevin L. Kenworthy

Determination of Related Party Status6-2

- Q 6.1 What kind of common control is needed for transactions between two or more parties to be subject to the transfer pricing rules?6-2
 - Q 6.1.1 Can common control exist between unrelated parties?6-5
 - Q 6.1.2 Does common control necessarily exist where the parties to a transaction are controlled by family members?6-7
 - Q 6.1.3 Will a contract entered into between uncontrolled parties become a controlled transaction if one party acquires the other?6-7

Determining Whether There Has Been a Transaction or Other Transfer of Value Between Controlled Parties That Must Be Accounted for Under the Transfer Pricing Rules6-9

- Q 6.2 Assuming common control exists, what types of transactions are subject to the transfer pricing rules?6-9
 - Q 6.2.1 Is it appropriate to aggregate controlled transactions for purposes of evaluating whether they are at arm's length?6-12
 - Q 6.2.2 Is an allocation of income possible in the absence of an intent to evade taxes?6-13
 - Q 6.2.3 Is it possible that income can be allocated to a controlled taxpayer where the controlled group did not realize a profit?6-14
 - Q 6.2.4 Similarly, can a controlled party incur a loss where the controlled group realizes an overall profit?6-14
- Q 6.3 Is an allocation of income authorized in the face of legal restrictions limiting or prohibiting payment or receipt of an arm's-length amount?6-16

Chapter 7 Recordkeeping and Reporting Obligations for U.S. Taxpayers and Their Foreign Affiliates

Kathryn Morrison Sneade

Code Section 6038 Information Reporting Obligations for U.S. Multinationals	7-3
The Basics	7-3
Q 7.1 How does the IRS collect information on a U.S. taxpayer's transactions with foreign affiliates?.....	7-3
Q 7.2 What are the reporting requirements for a U.S. corporation that controls foreign affiliates?.....	7-3
Q 7.2.1 What constitutes "control" of a foreign corporation?.....	7-4
Q 7.2.2 What constitutes "control" of a foreign partnership?.....	7-6
Q 7.2.3 What if more than one person controls a foreign entity?.....	7-7
Q 7.3 What information does the U.S. person report on the Forms 5471 and 8865?.....	7-9
Q 7.4 When must the U.S. taxpayer file the information returns with respect to controlled foreign entities?.....	7-11
Potential Penalties	7-11
Q 7.5 What penalties apply for failure to make a return of the information required by section 6038?.....	7-11
Country-by-Country Reporting	7-13
Q 7.6 What reporting is required under Treasury's "country-by-country" reports?.....	7-13
Code Sections 6038A and 6038C Information Reporting and Record Maintenance Obligations for Foreign-Based Multinationals	7-15
The Basics	7-15
Q 7.7 What information reporting and record maintenance obligations are imposed on foreign-based multinationals with transfer pricing transactions?.....	7-15
Q 7.8 Who is subject to the information reporting and recordkeeping obligations of sections 6038A and 6038C?.....	7-16
Q 7.9 What information must be reported under sections 6038A and 6038C?.....	7-17
Q 7.10 What records must be maintained under sections 6038A and 6038C and for how long must they be retained?.....	7-18

Table of Contents

Q 7.11	Who must maintain the required records and where must they be maintained?	7-21
	Exceptions	7-22
Q 7.12	Are there any exceptions from the information reporting and recordkeeping obligations of sections 6038A and 6038C?	7-22
	Potential Penalties	7-24
Q 7.13	What penalties apply for failure to comply with the information reporting and recordkeeping obligations of sections 6038A and 6038C?	7-24

Chapter 8 Penalties for Transfer Pricing Adjustments and Contemporaneous Documentation Requirements

Kathryn Morrison Sneade

The Basics	8-2
Q 8.1	What is the transfer pricing penalty and how is it applied?	8-2
Q 8.2	When does the transactional penalty apply?	8-3
Q 8.3	When does the net adjustment penalty apply?	8-4
Q 8.3.1	How is the “net section 482 transfer price adjustment” calculated?	8-4
Q 8.4	What if both penalties apply?	8-8
Exceptions	8-11
Q 8.5	Are there any exceptions from the transactional penalty and/or net adjustment penalty?	8-11
The Contemporaneous Documentation Safe Harbor	8-13
Q 8.6	What are the requirements for the contemporaneous documentation safe harbor?	8-13
Q 8.6.1	What are the requirements to qualify for the contemporaneous documentation safe harbor where the taxpayer uses a specified method?	8-14
Q 8.6.2	What are the requirements to qualify for the contemporaneous documentation safe harbor where the taxpayer uses an unspecified method?	8-15

Q 8.6.3	How is “reasonableness” evaluated for purposes of meeting the specified method requirement or unspecified method requirement?	8-17
Q 8.6.4	What documentation is required to qualify for the contemporaneous documentation safe harbor?	8-19
Q 8.6.5	How might a cost sharing agreement affect the taxpayer’s ability to satisfy the contemporaneous documentation safe harbor?	8-22
Q 8.6.6	How might an advance pricing agreement affect the taxpayer’s ability to satisfy the contemporaneous documentation safe harbor?	8-22
Q 8.6.7	Can a taxpayer satisfy the contemporaneous documentation requirement through transfer pricing documentation developed for a foreign jurisdiction?	8-23
Best Practices	8-24
Q 8.7	What are best practices to avoid application of the transfer pricing penalties?	8-24

Chapter 9 Transfer Pricing Planning and Taxpayers’ Affirmative Use of Section 482

David B. Blair & Kevin L. Kenworthy

Transfer Pricing Planning	9-3
Q 9.1	How can taxpayers advantageously structure their controlled transactions in light of transfer pricing regulation?	9-3
Q 9.1.1	Can MNEs plan into a structure that has a good chance of surviving a challenge on audit?	9-4
Q 9.1.2	How does a taxpayer identify a structure that has a good prospect of withstanding a challenge on audit?	9-6
Q 9.1.3	How can a taxpayer identify tax planning strategies to avoid?	9-7
Q 9.1.4	How should taxpayers approach planning a transfer pricing strategy?	9-8
Q 9.1.5	What are examples of functions to be examined?	9-8
Q 9.1.6	What are examples of risks to be examined?	9-9
Q 9.1.7	What is the role of contracts in the transfer pricing planning process?	9-10
Q 9.1.8	How can taxpayers take into account intangibles in the tax planning process?	9-11

Table of Contents

Q 9.1.9	What are some other considerations that go into the transfer pricing planning process?.....	9-11
Getting It Right on the Return		9-11
Q 9.2	When can a taxpayer use section 482 affirmatively to report the results of a controlled transaction under the arm's-length standard?	9-11
Q 9.2.1	If section 482 requires arm's-length pricing, why restrict a taxpayer's ability to report its income on that basis, even on an amended return?.....	9-12
Setoffs		9-13
Q 9.3	How can a taxpayer use section 482 after the return has been filed?	9-13
Q 9.3.1	How and when can a taxpayer raise a setoff claim?	9-13
Chapter 10 Manufacturing and Distribution of Goods
George M. Clarke, III
Overview		10-2
Q 10.1	What Treasury Regulations predominately govern the transfer pricing of goods?	10-2
Q 10.2	What methods are typically used to determine the appropriate transfer pricing for the sale of goods between related parties?.....	10-2
CUP Method		10-3
Q 10.3	What are the factors to take into account in determining whether a goods transaction with an unrelated party is comparable enough to the related party transaction for the unrelated transaction price to be considered a CUP?.....	10-3
Q 10.4	What adjustments are appropriate to make to an imperfect comparable transaction to make it more comparable for CUP purposes?.....	10-3
Q 10.5	Can public data inform adjustments to or the comparability of a CUP?.....	10-5
Resale Price Method		10-6
Q 10.6	What are the key issues in determining whether to apply a resale price method to a sale of goods?.....	10-6

TRANSFER PRICING ANSWER BOOK 2020

Q 10.7	What are the key issues in applying an RPM to a sale of goods?	10-6
Cost Plus	10-7
Q 10.8	What are the key issues in determining whether to apply a cost plus to a sale of goods?	10-7
Q 10.9	What are the key issues in applying the cost plus method to a sale of goods?	10-7
Sales by Commissionaires or Contract Manufacturers	10-8
Q 10.10	Can an RPM or cost plus analysis be used to price transactions involving commissionaires or contract manufacturers?	10-8
The Comparable Profits Method (CPM)	10-9
Q 10.11	What are the key issues in determining whether to apply a CPM to a sale of goods?	10-9
Q 10.12	What are the key issues in applying a CPM to a sale of goods?	10-9
Other Methods	10-10
Q 10.13	What sorts of other methods can be used to price a sale of goods?	10-10
Transfer of Goods Along with Intangible Property	10-10
Q 10.14	How does the interrelationship between the sale or exchange of goods and the use of intangible property to support that sale of goods manifest itself in transfer pricing practice?	10-10

Chapter 11 Provision of Services

David M. Ernack & Megan McLaughlin Kirmil

Overview	11-2
Q 11.1	What Treasury Regulations predominately govern the transfer pricing of services?	11-2
Q 11.2	What methods are typically used to determine the appropriate transfer pricing in connection with controlled services transactions?	11-2

Table of Contents

Q 11.3	What is a controlled services transaction?.....	11-3
Q 11.3.1	When is an activity performed?.....	11-3
Q 11.3.2	When is a benefit received?	11-3
Q 11.3.3	When may a controlled services transaction be analyzed as two separate transactions (disaggregated) for purposes of determining the arm's-length price?.....	11-5
Services Cost Method	11-7
Q 11.4	What is the services cost method?	11-7
Q 11.4.1	What are total services costs?.....	11-7
Q 11.4.2	What types of services are eligible for the SCM?.....	11-7
Q 11.5	What is a shared services arrangement?	11-9
Q 11.5.1	What are the requirements of a shared services arrangement?.....	11-10
Q 11.5.2	How are the costs of covered services allocated among the participants in a shared services arrangement?.....	11-10
Q 11.5.3	What documentation does the IRS require for a shared services arrangement?	11-11
Q 11.5.4	May covered services be aggregated when applying the SCM to an SSA?.....	11-12
Q 11.5.5	What if the taxpayer is a participant in both an SSA and a cost sharing arrangement?.....	11-12
Comparable Uncontrolled Services Price Method	11-12
Q 11.6	What is the CUSP method?.....	11-12
Q 11.6.1	What are the factors to take into account in determining whether a services transaction with an unrelated party is comparable enough to the related party transaction for the unrelated transaction price to be considered a CUSP?.....	11-13
Q 11.7	What adjustments are appropriate to make an imperfect comparable transaction more comparable for CUSP purposes?	11-13
Q 11.8	Can public data inform adjustments to or the comparability of a CUSP?	11-14
Gross Services Margin Method	11-15
Q 11.9	What is the gross services margin method?	11-15
Q 11.10	What are the key issues in applying a gross services margin to the performance of services?.....	11-15

Cost of Services Plus Method	11-16
Q 11.11 What is the cost of services plus method?	11-16
Q 11.12 What are the key issues in applying a cost of services plus method to the performance of services?	11-16
Comparable Profits Method	11-18
Q 11.13 What is the CPM?	11-18
Q 11.14 What are the key issues in applying a CPM to the performance of services?	11-18
Profit Split Method	11-19
Q 11.15 What is the PSM?	11-19
Q 11.15.1 What are the key issues in determining whether to apply a profit split method to the performance of services?	11-19
Unspecified Methods	11-19
Q 11.16 What other methods can be used to price the performance of services?	11-19
Contingent-Payment Arrangements	11-20
Q 11.17 What are contingent-payment arrangements?	11-20
Q 11.18 When is payment required under a contingent-payment arrangement?	11-20
Q 11.18.1 May the IRS impute a contingent-payment arrangement?	11-20
Allocation of Costs	11-21
Q 11.19 How are costs allocated where the services benefit more than one member of a controlled group?	11-21
Coordination Rules	11-21
Q 11.20 What is the best method for a controlled services transaction that is combined with a non-services transaction?	11-21
Q 11.21 How do the coordination rules interact with the disaggregation rule?	11-23

Chapter 12 Intangible Property: Discussion of Issues Arising from the Development and Transfer of Intangible Property, Including Licensing, Contract R&D, and Cost Sharing Models

George M. Clarke, III and David B. Blair

Overview	12-2
Q 12.1 What Code provisions and Treasury Regulations predominately govern the transfer pricing of intangible property?	12-2
Q 12.2 What methods are typically used to determine the appropriate transfer pricing for the sale of intangible property between related parties?.....	12-3
Definition of Intangible	12-4
Q 12.3 What is an intangible for purposes of the U.S. transfer pricing regulations?	12-4
Q 12.3.1 Can the IRS require a payment for the allocation of a “business opportunity”?.....	12-5
CUT Method	12-5
Q 12.4 What are the factors to take into account in determining whether an intangibles transaction with an unrelated party is comparable enough to the related party transaction for the unrelated transaction price to be considered a CUT?	12-5
Q 12.5 What adjustments are appropriate to make to an imperfect comparable transaction to make it more comparable for CUT purposes?.....	12-7
CPM and Profit Split Methods	12-7
Q 12.6 When can taxpayers use profit-based methods to price intangibles?	12-7
Q 12.7 How can taxpayers use the CPM method to price intangibles?	12-8
Q 12.8 How can taxpayers use the PSM to price intangibles?	12-8
Q 12.9 What is the “realistic alternative” principle as used in determining the transfer pricing of intangibles?.....	12-9

Q 12.10	What sorts of unspecified methods can be used to price intangibles?	12-10
Q 12.11	What is the “market capitalization method” for valuing intangible property transfers and is it legitimate?.....	12-11
Interrelationship with the Sale or Exchange of Goods		12-12
Q 12.12	How does the interrelationship between the sale or exchange of goods and the use of intangible property to support that sale of goods manifest itself in transfer pricing practice?	12-12
Commensurate with Income		12-12
Q 12.13	What is “commensurate with income” and how is it applied?.....	12-12
Ownership of Intangible Property		12-13
Q 12.14	What rules determine which party owns an intangible for transfer pricing purposes?	12-13
Assorted Valuation Issues		12-14
Q 12.15	How are the contributions of one party to the value of intangible property owned by another party determined for transfer pricing purposes?	12-14
Q 12.16	Can the IRS aggregate items of intangible property for purposes of preparing a unified valuation?	12-15
Q 12.17	When testing income projections in the valuation of intangibles, how much credibility will a court give to the taxpayer’s business projections?	12-16

Chapter 13 Cost Sharing Arrangements, Including Their Interrelationship with Intangibles Transfers

David B. Blair, David J. Fischer & David M. Ernick

Overview of Cost Sharing Arrangements		13-2
Q 13.1	What is a cost sharing arrangement?	13-2
Q 13.1.1	How are cost sharing arrangements treated under the tax laws?	13-4
Q 13.1.2	What are the risks from entering into a cost sharing arrangement?	13-5

Table of Contents

Q 13.1.3	Should my company consider cost sharing intangible development?	13-6
Q 13.2	Do the IRS regulations extend these tax benefits to all cost sharing arrangements?	13-6
The Cost Sharing Regulations		13-8
Q 13.2.1	What are the basic substantive requirements for cost sharing arrangements under the regulations?	13-8
Q 13.2.2	What are the basic administrative requirements under the regulations?	13-9
Cost Sharing Arrangements and the Buy-In Problem		13-11
Q 13.3	What is the buy-in problem?	13-11
Q 13.3.1	How are buy-in transactions treated under the tax laws?	13-13
Q 13.3.2	How is arm's-length compensation determined for buy-in transactions?	13-17
Q 13.3.3	What is the CUT method?	13-18
Q 13.3.4	What is the acquisition price method?	13-19
Q 13.3.5	What is the market capitalization method?	13-20
Q 13.3.6	What is the income method?	13-20
Q 13.3.7	What is the residual profit split method (RPSM)?	13-22
Q 13.3.8	How does the commensurate with income standard of section 482 apply to buy-in transactions?	13-22
Q 13.4	How are modifications of cost sharing arrangements treated under U.S. tax laws?	13-23
Cost Sharing Arrangements and IRS Enforcement Activity		13-25
Q 13.5	What aspects of cost sharing arrangements have attracted the most attention from the IRS?	13-25
Q 13.5.1	What are the concerns with the migration of intangibles through cost sharing arrangements?	13-25
Q 13.5.2	What are the concerns with determining the pool of costs to be charged out to participants in a cost sharing arrangement?	13-26
Q 13.5.3	What are the concerns with respect to intangibles not covered by the list in section 367(d)(4)?	13-28
Q 13.5.4	What are the concerns with respect to arrangements with terms that do not conform to the contractual terms, risk allocations, and other material terms covered by the cost sharing rules?	13-29

Chapter 14 Loans and Rentals

George M. Clarke, III

Loans	14-2
Q 14.1 What is the fundamental principle governing the transfer pricing of loans?	14-2
Q 14.2 To what loans do the transfer pricing rules apply?	14-2
Q 14.3 Over what period must arm’s-length interest be charged?.....	14-2
Q 14.4 What is an “arm’s-length” interest rate?.....	14-3
Q 14.5 How do the interest adjustments allowed by section 482 coordinate with the other interest rate adjustments in the Code?.....	14-3
Rentals	14-5
Q 14.6 What is the fundamental principle governing the transfer pricing of rentals and leases?	14-5
Q 14.7 What is an “arm’s-length charge” in a lease or rental context?.....	14-5
Q 14.8 Is there an effective safe harbor when the lessee has a head lease?.....	14-5

Chapter 15 Strategic Considerations in Transfer Pricing Planning That Drive Controversy Positions

David B. Blair

Identifying Hot Button Transfer Pricing Issues	15-2
Q 15.1 What are the key strategic decisions in the tax planning process that tend to impact the potential for tax controversies?	15-2
Q 15.2 What types of tactical decisions from the tax-planning and compliance phase tend to resurface in the controversy setting?.....	15-3
Developing an Audit Strategy	15-5
Q 15.3 What are the strategic considerations for a taxpayer when the IRS challenges a transfer pricing position?	15-5
Q 15.4 How does the taxpayer maintain an effective team to defend its transfer pricing?	15-7

Chapter 16 Advance Pricing Agreements

David B. Blair

Taxpayers May Agree with the IRS on a Transfer Pricing Methodology in Advance	16-2
The APA Option	16-2
Q 16.1 What is an Advance Pricing Agreement?.....	16-2
Strategic Considerations in Applying for an APA	16-4
Q 16.1.1 What are the considerations in deciding whether to pursue an APA?.....	16-4
Administration of the APA Program	16-6
The IRS's Advance Pricing and Mutual Agreement Program	16-6
Q 16.1.2 Who are the players in the APA process?.....	16-6
Q 16.1.3 What standards does APMA apply in considering an application for a bilateral APA?.....	16-7
Procedural Aspects of Obtaining an APA	16-7
Q 16.2 What are the procedures for obtaining an APA?.....	16-7
Q 16.2.1 Should taxpayers consider a pre-filing conference before filing their APA application?.....	16-8
Q 16.2.2 What must the taxpayer include in an APA application?.....	16-9
Q 16.2.3 How does APMA review APA applications?.....	16-11
Q 16.3 How does the APMA team evaluate an APA request?.....	16-12
The Role of Competent Authority	16-16
Q 16.4 What is the role of the competent authority in the bilateral APA process?.....	16-16
Using an APA to Resolve Earlier Years	16-17
Q 16.5 Can the transfer pricing method agreed to in an APA also apply to earlier years?.....	16-17
Compliance Once the APA Is in Place	16-18
Q 16.6 How does the IRS monitor compliance with the APA?.....	16-18
Q 16.7 How long does an APA last?.....	16-19
Q 16.7.1 Can an APA be renewed?.....	16-20

Small Taxpayer Procedures	16-20
Q 16.8 Are there less burdensome APA procedures available for smaller taxpayers?	16-20
Q 16.9 Are APAs published by the IRS?	16-21
Q 16.10 Can the IRS revoke an APA?	16-21

Chapter 17 Handling Transfer Pricing Audits by the IRS

David B. Blair & Howard M. Weinman

The Audit Process	17-3
Q 17.1 What are the sources of the IRS's power to conduct audits?	17-3
Q 17.1.1 Who are the players in IRS transfer pricing audits?	17-4
Q 17.1.2 What special IRS enforcement programs relate to transfer pricing?	17-5
Q 17.1.3 What is the IRS Transfer Pricing Audit Roadmap?	17-8
Preparation for an IRS Transfer Pricing Audit	17-11
Q 17.2 What is the best way for taxpayers to prepare for an IRS audit that includes transfer pricing issues?	17-11
Ensure Effective Document Management	17-12
Q 17.2.1 What records must the taxpayer have available for the IRS examiners?	17-12
Q 17.2.2 What are the potential consequences if material evidence is destroyed?	17-13
Protect Privileged Communications	17-14
Q 17.2.3 What special considerations apply to privileged information in the tax department's file?	17-14
Manage the Statute of Limitations	17-15
Q 17.2.4 How should the taxpayer manage the statute of limitations on tax assessments?	17-15
Decide Whether to Push Your Case to the Front of the Line	17-16
Q 17.2.5 What if my case presents a novel issue?	17-16

Table of Contents

Working with the IRS Team	17-16
Planning Your Audit with the IRS Team	17-16
Q 17.2.6 Can taxpayers join in planning the audit with the IRS team?	17-16
Q 17.3 How does the IRS examine transfer pricing cases?.....	17-17
Q 17.3.1 How are the risk assessment and case planning processes described?	17-17
The IRS Audit Team’s Initial Request for Transfer Pricing Information	17-18
Q 17.3.2 What is the IRS likely to request at the outset of a transfer pricing audit?	17-18
The IRS Team’s Risk Assessment of Your Return	17-20
Q 17.3.3 How does the IE conduct the risk assessment of a taxpayer’s transfer pricing?	17-20
Time Constraints on the IRS Audit Team	17-21
Q 17.3.4 What is the IRS’s “currency initiative” and what does it mean for a transfer pricing audit?	17-21
The Opening Conference	17-21
Q 17.4 What happens at the opening conference between the taxpayer and the IRS Exam Team?	17-21
How the IRS Audit Team Develops Its Case	17-23
Q 17.5 How does the Exam Team develop the IRS’s factual case and legal theories?	17-23
Managing the IDR Process	17-28
Q 17.5.1 What are the recommended “best practices” for managing the IDR process?	17-28
The Audit Team’s Analysis of the Taxpayer’s Transfer Pricing	17-32
Q 17.5.2 How does the IRS Exam Team propose adjustments to a taxpayer’s transfer pricing?.....	17-32
Q 17.5.3 How does the IE find comparable transactions?.....	17-33
Q 17.5.4 How does the IRS Exam team select the best method for determining the arm’s-length result for the taxpayer’s controlled transactions?	17-34

IRS Powers to Collect Information in Transfer Pricing Cases	17-35
Informal IRS Discovery	17-35
Q 17.6 How can the IRS gather documents in transfer pricing cases?	17-35
Q 17.6.1 Does the more informal IDR process work in international transfer pricing cases?.....	17-35
The IRS Administrative Summons Power	17-37
Q 17.6.2 If the informal IDR process is ineffective, what can the IRS do to compel the taxpayer to answer its questions, supply documents, and provide access to witnesses?.....	17-37
IRS Powers to Request Foreign Taxpayer Information Under U.S. Treaties	17-38
Q 17.6.3 Can the IRS go to foreign governments to gather information?.....	17-38
Third-Party Summonses	17-39
Q 17.6.4 How does the IRS gather information from third parties?	17-39
Q 17.6.5 What can the IRS do if the third party is concerned that answering the IRS's questions will expose the third party to claims by the taxpayer?.....	17-40
Q 17.6.6 What are the procedural requirements for a valid third-party summons?	17-40
Q 17.6.7 Is the taxpayer entitled to notice of a third-party summons?	17-41
Q 17.6.8 May the taxpayer petition to quash a third-party summons?	17-41
Q 17.6.9 How does a proceeding to quash affect the statute of limitations on an IRS assessment of tax?	17-42
Q 17.6.10 What are some best practices for handling IRS requests for third-party interviews?.....	17-42
Q 17.6.11 How do you protect privileged materials in an IRS summons proceeding?.....	17-43
IRS Powers to Access Information on Foreign Affiliates and Related Sanctions	17-43
Q 17.7 How does the IRS obtain information on transactions with foreign affiliates?.....	17-43

Table of Contents

Q 17.8	How can the IRS compel disclosure of information on transactions with affiliates that are outside the jurisdiction of the United States?	17-44
Q 17.8.1	How does the IRS compel foreign-based companies to cooperate in IRS discovery?.....	17-45
Q 17.8.2	Are there penalties for failure to file the required disclosures under sections 6038A and 6038C, or appoint the U.S. taxpayer as agent for foreign affiliates?.....	17-45
Q 17.8.3	What are some best practices to avoid an IRS recordkeeping penalty under sections 6038A and 6038C?	17-46
Q 17.8.4	What can the IRS do to prevent the running of the statute of limitations on tax assessments if the taxpayer encounters delays in responding to IDRs?	17-47
Q 17.9	What happens if the taxpayer waits until after the audit to produce documents?.....	17-48
Settlement		17-48
Settling with Your Exam Team		17-48
Q 17.10	Can taxpayers explore settlement of an issue with the Exam Team?	17-48
Q 17.10.1	What is the Exam Team's authority to resolve issues?.....	17-49
Q 17.10.2	What happens if other IRS personnel become involved in settlement discussions at the Exam level?.....	17-49
Settling at IRS Appeals		17-50
Q 17.11	How can a taxpayer resolve its transfer pricing adjustments at IRS Appeals?	17-50
Q 17.11.1	How do you take your case to Appeals?	17-51
Q 17.11.2	How does Appeals conduct its proceedings?.....	17-53
Q 17.11.3	Is it necessary to coordinate an Appeals proceeding with Competent Authority?.....	17-53
Q 17.11.4	Can you seek settlement of an IRS-initiated transfer pricing adjustment at Appeals simultaneously with a Competent Authority proceeding?.....	17-54

Chapter 18 Considerations When Settling Transfer Pricing Disputes

David B. Blair & David J. Fischer

Tactical Considerations in Settling a Transfer Pricing Case	18-2
Q 18.1 What is the impact of settlement on future years?	18-2
Q 18.2 Is the other party to the controlled transaction resident in a country that has an income tax treaty with the United States? If so, can the taxpayer invoke the treaty to obtain relief from any double taxation that might otherwise result from an IRS adjustment?.....	18-2
Q 18.3 Is it possible to limit the deficiency interest that accrues on the additional tax due on account of the transfer pricing adjustment?.....	18-3
Q 18.4 Are there secondary adjustments in addition to the base adjustment?.....	18-3
Q 18.4.1 Does the primary adjustment trigger correlative adjustments?.....	18-3
Q 18.4.2 Is there a way to bring the controlled parties' cash accounts into conformity with the transfer pricing adjustments without incurring unnecessary tax?.....	18-4
Q 18.4.3 Are there available setoffs to the IRS's transfer pricing adjustment?	18-4
Q 18.5 Can you enter into a settlement with the IRS first, and then invoke Competent Authority assistance to avoid potential double taxation?	18-5
Q 18.6 How will a settlement affect the taxpayer's U.S. foreign tax credits?	18-5
Q 18.7 Will a transfer pricing settlement for income tax purposes affect the valuation of goods for purposes of customs?	18-6

Chapter 19 Competent Authority

David B. Blair

The Competent Authority Process	19-2
Q 19.1 How can the competent authority process help to resolve transfer pricing disputes?	19-2
Q 19.1.1 Who are the players in a competent authority proceeding?.....	19-3

Table of Contents

Q 19.2	What standard does the competent authority apply in transfer pricing cases?	19-5
Strategic Considerations in Deciding Whether to Pursue Competent Authority Relief		19-6
Q 19.3	What factors should a taxpayer consider in deciding whether or not to pursue competent authority relief?	19-6
Q 19.3.1	What are some positive features of the competent authority relief?	19-7
Q 19.3.2	What are some negative features of the competent authority process?	19-8
Q 19.3.3	Does a taxpayer have to involve competent authority in a transfer pricing dispute?.....	19-9
Procedural Aspects of Pursuing Competent Authority Relief		19-9
Timing of the Competent Authority Request		19-9
Q 19.4	When is it appropriate to initiate a competent authority request?	19-9
Q 19.4.1	When is it appropriate to initiate a MAP request for a U.S.-initiated adjustment?	19-10
Q 19.4.2	When is it appropriate to initiate a MAP request for a foreign-initiated adjustment?.....	19-11
Coordination of the Competent Authority Request with IRS Audits, Appeals, Refund Claims, or Litigation		19-11
Q 19.4.3	How do you coordinate a request for competent authority assistance with an ongoing audit or administrative appeal?	19-11
Q 19.4.4	How do you coordinate a competent authority request with a tax case that is in court?	19-13
Q 19.4.5	What are the consequences of taking a case to Appeals or court first, and then seeking competent authority relief?	19-13
Q 19.4.6	Can you seek settlement of an IRS-initiated transfer pricing adjustment at Appeals simultaneously with a competent authority proceeding?.....	19-13
Q 19.4.7	How do you preserve your right to seek a tax refund claim related to a competent authority proceeding?.....	19-15

Who Requests Competent Authority Assistance	19-16
Q 19.5 Who can file a competent authority request?	19-16
Q 19.5.1 How does the U.S. Competent Authority handle foreign-initiated competent authority cases?.....	19-17
Procedures for Requesting and Processing U.S. Competent Authority Assistance	19-17
Q 19.5.2 What are the procedures for initiating a request with the U.S. Competent Authority?.....	19-17
Q 19.5.3 Does the competent authority have to accept the taxpayer's request for a MAP procedure?.....	19-18
Q 19.6 What happens during the competent authority process?	19-19
Q 19.6.1 What are the responsibilities of the Competent Authority Analyst?	19-20
Competent Authority Negotiations	19-20
Q 19.6.2 When do the competent authorities meet?	19-20
Q 19.6.3 Can the taxpayer participate in the competent authorities' negotiating sessions?.....	19-21
Taxpayer Consideration of the Competent Authorities' Proposed Resolution	19-22
Q 19.7 How does the competent authority agreement become effective?.....	19-22
Collateral Adjustments Arising Out of Competent Authority Agreements	19-22
Q 19.8 Are there collateral effects of a competent authority agreement? How does the IRS address collateral effects?	19-22
Accelerated Competent Authority Procedure	19-23
Q 19.9 Can taxpayers request that competent authority resolutions apply to later taxable years?.....	19-23
Under Certain Treaties, Mandatory Arbitration Is Available for Stalled Cases	19-24
Q 19.10 What remedies are available if the competent authorities fail to resolve a competent authority request on a timely basis?	19-24

Table of Contents

Prudential Considerations in Requesting Competent Authority Relief	19-26
Q 19.10.1 How can the taxpayer facilitate productive discussions between the competent authority and an expeditious resolution of the case?	19-26
Q 19.11 Are there less burdensome procedures available for smaller tax cases to receive competent authority consideration?	19-27

Chapter 20 Litigating a Transfer Pricing Case

David B. Blair & Howard M. Weinman

Identify and Prepare for Cases Likely to Go to Litigation	20-3
Q 20.1 How do you identify when the IRS is likely to pursue a transfer pricing case to litigation?	20-3
Q 20.2 How do you select counsel and assess litigation hazards?	20-3
Choice of Forum for Transfer Pricing Litigation	20-4
Q 20.3 What are the considerations for a taxpayer when choosing a court for a transfer pricing case?	20-4
Q 20.3.1 What courts are available to taxpayers in transfer pricing cases?	20-4
The Tax Court	20-5
The Court of Federal Claims	20-6
The District Courts	20-6
Q 20.3.2 How does one choose a forum for a transfer pricing case?	20-7
Developing Your Case	20-9
Q 20.4 What is the best way to develop a theme for a transfer pricing case?	20-9
Q 20.4.1 What considerations apply when control issues predominate?	20-10
Q 20.4.2 What considerations apply when characterization issues predominate?	20-10
Q 20.4.3 What considerations apply when valuation issues predominate?	20-10

TRANSFER PRICING ANSWER BOOK 2020

Q 20.5	May the taxpayer challenge actions that the IRS took in Exam, Appeals, etc.?	20-11
Q 20.6	What is the practical effect of the heightened presumption of correctness that attaches to an IRS notice of deficiency in a transfer pricing case?	20-12
Procedures for Bringing the Transfer Pricing Case to Court		20-13
Jurisdiction, Pleading, and Pre-Trial Procedures		20-13
Q 20.7	What are the administrative prerequisites to filing suit against the IRS?	20-13
	Notice of Deficiency	20-13
	Perfecting a Refund Claim and Variance Doctrine	20-13
Q 20.8	How do you prepare the pleadings for a transfer pricing case?	20-14
Q 20.8.1	Can transfer pricing cases be resolved “on the papers” through dispositive motions?	20-15
Q 20.8.2	How will the court set the case for trial?	20-15
Q 20.8.3	What filings are necessary at the time of trial?	20-15
Q 20.9	How can taxpayers protect confidential trade secrets during tax litigation?	20-16
Discovery and Stipulations in Transfer Pricing Cases		20-17
Q 20.10	What are the considerations regarding discovery and stipulations in a transfer pricing case?	20-17
	Discovery	20-17
	Discovery of Electronically Stored Information	20-17
	Spoilation	20-18
	Privilege	20-19
	Stipulations	20-21
Considerations in Presentation of Transfer Pricing Cases		20-21
Q 20.11	What considerations apply when presenting evidence in transfer pricing cases?	20-21
Q 20.11.1	What are the persuasive advantages of fact witnesses?	20-22
Q 20.11.2	What are the critical considerations when working with expert witnesses?	20-22

Table of Contents

Post-Trial Procedures	20-24
Q 20.12 What happens after the court issues its opinion in a case?.....	20-24
Arbitration	20-25
Q 20.13 Can a tax court case go to arbitration?	20-25

Chapter 21 Coordination with Customs Valuations

Jay L. Eizenstat & David B. Blair

Valuations of Imported Products for Customs Purposes	21-3
Q 21.1 How do valuations of imported products for purposes of U.S. customs affect transfer pricing for income tax purposes?.....	21-3
Q 21.2 How do importers establish prices for customs purposes?.....	21-4
Q 21.3 How did the law governing customs valuation develop?.....	21-4
Q 21.4 How is imported merchandise valued for customs purposes?.....	21-5
Q 21.5 How does CBP determine import values for customs purposes in related party transactions?	21-6
Q 21.5.1 What are the circumstances of sale test?.....	21-7
Q 21.5.2 Did the importer settle the price in a manner consistent with normal pricing practices of the industry in question?.....	21-8
Q 21.5.3 Did the importer settle the price in a manner consistent with the way the importer settled prices for sales to unrelated buyers?	21-8
Q 21.5.4 Has the importer shown that the price is adequate to ensure the recovery of all costs plus a profit which is equivalent to the firm's overall profit realized over a representative period of time in sales of merchandise of the same class or kind?	21-9
Q 21.5.5 Can importers validate their related party transactions by reference to other transactions?.....	21-9
Interaction of Customs Valuations with Transfer Pricing Studies and APAs Developed for Income Tax Purposes	21-11
Q 21.6 What weight does CBP accord transfer pricing studies and APAs when determining the value of imported merchandise for customs purposes?.....	21-11
Q 21.7 What is the effect of reporting import values to CBP on the IRS's transfer pricing analysis for income tax purposes?	21-14

Q 21.8	If my company makes an adjustment to its transfer pricing for income tax purposes, must it report that change to CBP?	21-16
--------	---	-------

Chapter 22 Financial Accounting for Transfer Pricing Exposures

Kathryn Morrison Sneade & Howard M. Weinman

Accounting for Income Tax Under U.S. GAAP		22-3
Basics		22-3
Q 22.1	What is FIN 48?.....	22-3
Q 22.2	Who is subject to FIN 48?	22-3
Q 22.3	How does FIN 48 work?.....	22-4
Q 22.3.1	What is a “unit of account” and how is it determined?	22-4
Q 22.3.2	When can a tax benefit be recognized?	22-5
Q 22.3.3	How is the tax benefit that may be recognized measured?	22-6
Q 22.3.4	What disclosures are required by FIN 48?.....	22-8
Q 22.4	Can the IRS ask for workpapers relating to the preparation of Schedule UTP?.....	22-9
	Implications of FIN 48 for Transfer Pricing	22-9
Q 22.5	What issues are raised by FIN 48 for uncertain transfer pricing positions?.....	22-9
Q 22.6	How does FIN 48 affect the conduct of a transfer pricing controversy?	22-10
	Schedule UTP	22-11
	Basics	22-11
Q 22.7	What is Schedule UTP?	22-11
Q 22.8	Who must file Schedule UTP?	22-12
Q 22.9	When and how is Schedule UTP filed?.....	22-13
Q 22.10	What tax positions must be reported on Schedule UTP?	22-13
Q 22.10.1	What is a tax position?	22-14
Q 22.10.2	When is a reserve recorded?	22-15
Q 22.10.3	When does a position fall into the “expectation to litigate” category?	22-16

Table of Contents

Q 22.11	What information about the relevant tax positions must be reported on Schedule UTP?	22-16
Q 22.12	Is there a penalty for failing to file Schedule UTP?	22-18
Q 22.13	How does Schedule UTP coordinate with other reporting requirements?	22-18
Q 22.14	Can the IRS ask for workpapers relating to the preparation of Schedule UTP?	22-19
Q 22.15	Will the IRS share the information on Schedule UTP with foreign tax authorities?	22-20
Transfer Pricing and Schedule UTP		22-20
Q 22.16	What issues are raised by Schedule UTP for uncertain transfer pricing positions?	22-20
Q 22.17	How common are Schedule UTP transfer pricing disclosures?	22-21

Chapter 23 The OECD Base Erosion and Profit Shifting (BEPS) Initiative

David B. Blair

The BEPS Initiative	23-2
Q 23.1	What is the OECD's BEPS Initiative?	23-2
Q 23.2	What does the OECD propose to do about BEPS?	23-3
Q 23.3	What are the OECD's proposed changes to the transfer pricing rules?	23-4
Q 23.4	How has the OECD proposed to modify international tax rules to address large-scale companies in digital commerce?	23-5
Q 23.5	What is the OECD's country-by-country reporting for transfer pricing purposes?	23-6
Implementing the OECD's BEPS Proposals	23-8
Q 23.6	How likely is it that the OECD's proposals to address BEPS will become law?	23-8
Index	I-1

