

Table of Contents

About the Editor	v
About the Authors	vii
Table of Chapters	xix
Table of Contents	xxi
Acknowledgments	lv
Introduction	lvii

Chapter 1 Internal Investigations into SEC-Related Issues

Henry Klehm III & Joan E. McKown

Initial Decisions	1-4
Q 1.1 What are the benefits of conducting an internal investigation?	1-4
Q 1.2 Who is the client in an internal investigation?	1-7
Q 1.3 Who at the company should be charged with overseeing the investigation?	1-7
Objectives of Conducting an Internal Investigation	1-9
Q 1.4 What are the main goals of the investigation?	1-9
Q 1.5 Is it necessary to document the investigation in order to build a record?	1-10
The Intersection of the Internal Investigation and the SEC Investigation	1-11
Q 1.6 What impact does the internal investigation have on the SEC investigation?	1-11
Q 1.7 How can the company's internal investigation allow the company to respond efficiently to the SEC investigation?	1-13
Ensuring Independence When Needed	1-13
Q 1.8 What does it mean to be "independent"? Why is it important?	1-13
Q 1.9 When should the company engage independent counsel to undertake the internal investigation?	1-14

Privilege Considerations	1-15
Q 1.10 Who has the privilege?	1-15
Q 1.11 Are employees assisting with the investigation covered under the work product doctrine or attorney-client privilege?.....	1-16
Q 1.12 Who can waive the privilege?	1-17
Q 1.13 Should the company waive privilege with respect to its investigative findings?	1-17
Q 1.14 Can the company maintain its privilege if it produces privileged materials to the SEC?.....	1-17
Employee Issues	1-19
Q 1.15 How does the company manage current employees in an investigation?.....	1-19
Q 1.16 How does the company manage former employees in an investigation?.....	1-21
Q 1.17 Should the company identify potentially culpable employees to government regulators?	1-22
Reporting the Findings	1-23
Q 1.18 How should investigative findings be reported?.....	1-23
Q 1.19 How should investigative findings be reported to the SEC?.....	1-24
Appendix 1A SEC Model Confidentiality Agreement	App. 1A-1

Chapter 2 Representing Individuals in SEC Testimony and Interviews

Samuel J. Winer & Brooke D. Clarkson

The Function of Witness Statements and Authority to Obtain Them	2-2
Q 2.1 What is the role of SEC testimony and interviews in SEC investigations?	2-2
Q 2.2 What authority does the Staff have to obtain testimony?	2-2
Q 2.3 What remedy does the SEC have if a witness refuses to appear in response to an investigative subpoena?.....	2-4
Protections for Witnesses and Common SEC Practices	2-5
Q 2.4 What warnings must the Staff provide before speaking with a witness?	2-5

Table of Contents

Q 2.5	What is the SEC's practice with respect to contacting a company employee directly even though the SEC is aware that the company is represented by counsel?.....	2-6
Q 2.6	What is the best approach for a witness to take if the Staff contacts a witness and requests a voluntary interview?	2-7
Q 2.7	What are the Staff's practices with respect to interviewing witnesses by telephone?	2-9
Q 2.8	What are the Staff's practices with respect to conducting voluntary on-the-record testimony?	2-10
Q 2.9	What are the Staff's practices with respect to the use of questionnaires?	2-10
Testimony Preparation		2-11
Q 2.10	What are the goals of witness preparation?.....	2-11
Q 2.11	What can counsel learn from the Staff before testimony?	2-12
Q 2.12	What can counsel learn from documents before testimony?	2-12
Q 2.13	Are there restrictions on the Staff's ability to share the documents and topics about which they intend to question a witness?	2-14
Q 2.14	What can counsel learn from other testimony?	2-14
Q 2.15	What should counsel learn from the witness before testimony?	2-14
Q 2.16	What other information should counsel learn before testimony?	2-15
Q 2.17	What steps are involved in preparing a witness for testimony?	2-16
Q 2.17.1	What should counsel advise on technique?	2-16
Q 2.17.2	What should counsel advise on the risk of providing false information?	2-18
Q 2.17.3	What criminal provisions, if any, apply to false statements that a witness makes in an interview to the Staff?	2-19
Q 2.17.4	What other criminal provisions, if any, apply to false statements made under oath?	2-21
Q 2.17.5	What should counsel do if counsel thinks that the witness has made a false statement in an SEC interview or in SEC testimony?.....	2-22
Q 2.17.6	What should counsel do to refresh recollection?	2-22
Q 2.18	Should company counsel be present for preparation of company employees when such employees are represented by their own counsel?.....	2-23
Q 2.19	What impact does the SEC initiative for fostering cooperation have on the witness preparation process?.....	2-24

SEC COMPLIANCE AND ENFORCEMENT AB 2021

Attendance at Testimony	2-24
Q 2.20 Who is allowed to attend testimony on behalf of the witness?	2-24
Q 2.21 Who has a right to attend testimony on behalf of the Staff?	2-26
Q 2.22 How many Staff members typically attend testimony?	2-27
Commencement of Testimony	2-27
Q 2.23 How does the Staff typically open the testimony?	2-27
Q 2.23.1 What questions are asked about representation?	2-28
Q 2.23.2 What instructions are given?	2-28
Q 2.23.3 What will the Staff say about off-the-record discussions?	2-29
Q 2.23.4 What will the Staff ask about documents produced?	2-29
Q 2.23.5 What will the Staff ask about the background questionnaire?	2-30
Q 2.23.6 What will the Staff ask about other witnesses?	2-30
Q 2.23.7 What other background questions will the Staff ask?	2-30
Representation by Counsel	2-31
Q 2.24 Under what circumstances should a witness be represented by company counsel?	2-31
Q 2.25 Under what circumstances should a witness be represented by separate counsel?	2-31
Privilege Considerations	2-34
Q 2.26 What privileges can a witness readily assert in testimony?	2-34
Q 2.27 When should a witness consider declining to testify pursuant to his privilege under the Fifth Amendment to the U.S. Constitution?	2-34
Q 2.28 What information will the Staff typically provide about a witness's status prior to testimony?	2-36
Q 2.29 What is the role of the witness's counsel at testimony?	2-36
Transcripts	2-38
Q 2.30 Can and should counsel obtain a transcript?	2-38
Q 2.31 How can SEC testimony be used in other proceedings such as civil litigation or administrative proceedings?	2-39
Q 2.32 What means are available for protecting the confidentiality of contents of a testimonial transcript?	2-40
Appendix 2A SEC Form 1662	App. 2A-1

Chapter 3 Document Productions in SEC Investigations

Thomas C. Newkirk & Michael K. Lowman

Voluntary Document Productions	3-2
Q 3.1 Must you respond to a letter from the SEC requesting that you “voluntarily” produce documents or information?	3-2
Compulsory Document Productions	3-4
Q 3.2 If the SEC issues a subpoena, may you move to quash it or resist production in other ways?.....	3-4
Initial Response to Document Request	3-5
Q 3.3 What steps must be taken to plan for production to the SEC?.....	3-5
Q 3.4 What must be done first to identify and preserve information upon receipt of a request for production from the SEC?	3-6
Q 3.5 What if the SEC request for documents is overly broad and unduly costly to preserve and collect?	3-7
Q 3.6 Are there special considerations regarding negotiations with regard to electronic data?.....	3-10
Q 3.7 Do you need to hire outside vendors to handle or assist with electronic discovery?	3-12
Q 3.8 How should you develop electronic search terms?.....	3-13
Q 3.9 How should you respond to a subpoena for electronic storage devices, rather than documents?.....	3-14
Q 3.10 What best practices should be followed in the information collection stage?	3-15
Q 3.11 What are the best practices for sorting and analyzing the collected information?	3-15
Cooperation in Document Productions	3-16
Q 3.12 How does counsel cooperate most effectively with the Staff on document production?	3-16
Privilege Considerations and Confidentiality in Document Productions	3-18
Privilege Considerations	3-18
Q 3.13 What steps need to be taken to protect privileged materials?.....	3-18
Q 3.13.1 When and how do you prepare a privilege log?	3-18
Q 3.13.2 When does the attorney-client privilege apply?.....	3-19
Q 3.13.3 When does the work product doctrine apply?.....	3-20

Q 3.13.4	What is the Staff’s position on the ability to maintain privilege over documents shared with the independent auditor?	3-20
Q 3.13.5	What happens if you inadvertently produce privileged information?	3-21
Q 3.13.6	Under what circumstances may you invoke protection from document production under the Fifth Amendment privilege?	3-21
Confidentiality		3-23
Q 3.13.7	May you decline to produce on the basis of privacy rights and confidentiality?	3-23
Q 3.13.8	What protections can you expect from a confidentiality agreement with the Staff?.....	3-25
Technical Aspects of Document Productions		3-26
Q 3.14	What should be done to protect confidential information from disclosure pursuant to FOIA?	3-26
Q 3.15	What are best practices to follow when producing documents to the SEC?	3-28
Completing Document Productions		3-31
Q 3.16	What are certifications of completeness?	3-31
Appendix 3A	Sample Legal Hold Notice.....	App. 3A-1
Appendix 3B	Sample FOIA Confidential Treatment Request.....	App. 3B-1

Chapter 4 Cooperating with the SEC

Michael J. Diver

The SEC’s Cooperation Framework		4-2
Q 4.1	What standards of cooperation apply to corporations and other entities in enforcement investigations?	4-2
Q 4.2	How has the SEC applied the Seaboard Factors in other cases?	4-6
Q 4.3	What standards of cooperation apply to individuals in enforcement investigations?	4-8
Q 4.4	What specific tools are available to individuals and entities to gain cooperation credit with the SEC?	4-10
Q 4.4.1	Under what circumstances should defense counsel consider using a proffer agreement?	4-10

Table of Contents

Q 4.4.2	What is a cooperation agreement and under what circumstances will the SEC enter into one with an individual or entity?	4-11
Q 4.4.3	What are the terms of a deferred prosecution agreement and how does the SEC use such agreements?	4-12
Q 4.4.4	What is a non-prosecution agreement and under what circumstances will the SEC enter into one with an individual or entity?	4-15
Q 4.4.5	How and under what circumstances can counsel obtain immunity from criminal prosecution through the SEC?	4-17
Q 4.5	What other incentives exist for individuals to share information with the Staff?	4-19
The Mechanics of Cooperation		4-20
Q 4.6	When should defense counsel reach a decision regarding cooperation?	4-20
Q 4.7	What factors should defense counsel consider in assessing whether to self-report a violation to the Staff?	4-20
Q 4.8	How does the Staff typically evaluate and give credit for cooperation?	4-21
Q 4.9	What steps can an entity take to maximize its chances of obtaining maximum cooperation under the Seaboard Factors?	4-22
Q 4.10	Can counsel secure an agreement from the Staff that substantial cooperation credit will be granted before his or her client begins to share information with the Staff?	4-23
Q 4.11	How should privileged information be handled as part of a cooperation effort?	4-23
Q 4.11.1	What is the SEC's position on waiving privilege as a condition to earning cooperation?	4-24
Q 4.11.2	How much protection does the SEC's form confidentiality agreement provide for the production of privileged information?	4-26

Chapter 5 Parallel Investigations with the SEC

David M. Stuart

The Purpose of Parallel Investigations5-2

Q 5.1 What are the most common scenarios when parallel investigations are conducted?5-2

Q 5.2 Are there special considerations when there is a parallel investigation involving the SEC and a criminal authority?5-3

Obtaining Information About a Parallel Investigation.....5-4

Q 5.3 Will the SEC inform counsel if there is a parallel investigation by another authority (such as a criminal investigation)?5-4

Q 5.4 By what means can counsel determine whether parallel investigations exist?.....5-5

Consequences of Parallel Investigations5-6

Q 5.5 What are the consequences of multiple investigations related to the same subject matter?5-6

Information Sharing Between Agencies Involved in Parallel Investigations5-6

Q 5.6 To what extent will the agencies involved in parallel investigations cooperate with each other?.....5-6

Q 5.7 Will the agencies coordinate their respective requests for information?5-11

Q 5.8 Will the agencies coordinate their respective requests to interview witnesses or take testimony from witnesses?.....5-11

Q 5.9 Does a criminal authority have restrictions on the type of information that it can share with the SEC?5-11

Q 5.10 Will criminal authorities conduct joint proffers with the Staff?5-12

Q 5.11 Will the criminal authorities share the notes or FD-302s from interviews with the Staff?5-12

Increasing Efficiency and Reducing Costs During Parallel Investigations5-13

Q 5.12 How can one conserve resources when faced with multiple document requests from different authorities?5-13

Q 5.13 How can one conserve resources when faced with multiple requests for witness interviews/testimony from different authorities?5-13

Table of Contents

Fifth Amendment Issues in a Parallel Investigation	5-14
Q 5.14 Can one assert the Fifth Amendment privilege against self-incrimination during SEC investigations?	5-14
Q 5.15 Are there adverse consequences to asserting the Fifth Amendment in SEC investigations?.....	5-14
Q 5.16 Can a witness refuse to produce documents in response to a subpoena based on the Fifth Amendment?.....	5-16
Settlements of Parallel Investigations	5-17
Q 5.17 Will the SEC and other authorities involved work together in structuring a settlement?.....	5-17
Q 5.18 Will counsel need to negotiate separately with the SEC and the other authorities involved?.....	5-17

Chapter 6 The Wells Process at the Conclusion of an SEC Investigation

Wayne M. Carlin

History of the Wells Process	6-2
Q 6.1 Why is it called the “Wells” process?.....	6-2
Q 6.2 What are the SEC’s policies governing the Wells process?.....	6-3
Q 6.3 Does the Enforcement Manual address the Wells process?	6-5
Learning of a Wells Notice	6-6
Q 6.4 How does the Staff deliver a Wells notice?.....	6-6
Q 6.5 What information is contained in a written Wells notice?	6-6
The Wells Schedule and Procedure	6-8
Q 6.6 How does the Dodd-Frank deadline affect the Wells process?	6-8
Q 6.7 When does the Staff decline to give a Wells notice?	6-9
Obtaining Information After the Wells Notice	6-9
Q 6.8 How transparent is the Staff about evidence and theories?	6-9
Disclosure of a Wells Notice	6-10
Q 6.9 Is a public company required to disclose receipt of a Wells notice?	6-10
Q 6.10 Are registered persons in the securities industry required to disclose receipt of a Wells notice?.....	6-12

Preparing the Wells Submission	6-12
Q 6.11 Can a Wells submission really impact a charging decision?	6-12
Q 6.12 What is the best approach to writing a Wells submission?	6-13
Q 6.13 Should I consider making a video Wells submission?	6-14
Q 6.14 Who will read the Wells submission?	6-14
Q 6.15 What makes a Wells submission effective?	6-15
Q 6.16 Should counsel ever decline to make a Wells submission?	6-16
Q 6.17 Are Wells submissions admissible evidence in SEC and other proceedings?	6-16
Q 6.18 Can the Staff reject a Wells submission?	6-17
Process Following a Wells Submission	6-18
Q 6.19 What is a Wells meeting?	6-18
Q 6.20 Does issuance of a Wells notice prevent the Staff from conducting further investigation?.....	6-19
Q 6.21 Can the Wells process lead to settlement negotiations?.....	6-20
The “Pre-Wells” Process	6-20
Q 6.22 What is a “pre-Wells” process?	6-20

Chapter 7 Remedies and Sanctions in SEC Enforcement Actions

Daniel R. Walfish

Remedies and Sanctions in General	7-3
Q 7.1 What laws and rules give the SEC authority to impose remedies and sanctions?	7-3
Q 7.2 Can the SEC bring criminal cases or otherwise seek criminal penalties?	7-5
Q 7.3 What kinds of monetary remedies and sanctions can the SEC impose or obtain?	7-6
Q 7.4 What kinds of non-monetary remedies and sanctions can the SEC obtain in general?	7-9
Q 7.5 What kinds of non-monetary remedies and sanctions can the SEC impose on individuals in particular?.....	7-13
Injunctions, Cease-and-Desist Orders, and Emergency Relief	7-15
Q 7.6 What is the standard for imposing a permanent injunction?	7-15
Q 7.7 What is the effect of an SEC injunction (or order to cease and desist)?	7-17

Table of Contents

Q 7.8	When can the SEC obtain a temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction?.....	7-18
Q 7.9	What is the SEC's cease-and-desist authority, and how is a cease-and-desist order different from a permanent injunction?.....	7-19
Industry and Professional Bars and Suspensions.....		7-20
Q 7.10	What is the standard for imposing an industry bar or suspension?.....	7-20
Q 7.11	What is the standard for an officer and director bar?	7-21
Q 7.12	What is the standard for barring or suspending a person from practicing or appearing before the Commission?.....	7-22
Disgorgement and Prejudgment Interest		7-24
Q 7.13	How is disgorgement calculated?.....	7-24
Q 7.14	When is prejudgment interest imposed and how is it calculated?	7-27
Penalties.....		7-27
Q 7.15	How is the amount of a monetary penalty determined?.....	7-27
Q 7.16	How is the amount of an insider trading penalty determined?	7-31
Statutes of Limitations.....		7-32
Q 7.17	To what extent does a statute of limitations apply to SEC enforcement actions?.....	7-32
21(a) Reports.....		7-34
Q 7.18	Why does the SEC issue a report of some investigations, but not others?	7-34

Chapter 8 SEC-Imposed Monitors

Jonny J. Frank

Overview		8-2
Q 8.1	What is a corporate compliance monitor or independent consultant?.....	8-2
Q 8.2	What other agencies impose monitors?.....	8-3
Q 8.3	When does the SEC impose monitors and independent compliance consultants?.....	8-3

SEC COMPLIANCE AND ENFORCEMENT AB 2021

Compliance, Remediation, and Self-Monitoring Programs	8-5
Q 8.3.1 How does the SEC assess “pre-existing” compliance programs?	8-5
Q 8.3.2 What are the attributes of an effective remediation program?	8-6
Q 8.3.3 Why do companies conduct root cause analyses?	8-7
Q 8.3.4 What is a “Voluntary Monitor”?	8-8
Q 8.3.5 How do companies use “voluntary monitors” to avoid an SEC-imposed monitor?	8-9
Q 8.3.6 Will the “Benczkowski Memo” impact SEC decision to impose a monitor?	8-10
Scope and Authority	8-12
Q 8.4 What is the scope and authority of an SEC-imposed monitor?	8-12
Q 8.4.1 What is “reasonable assurance”?	8-13
Selection of Monitors	8-14
Q 8.5 How are SEC-imposed monitors selected?	8-14
Independence Requirements	8-15
Q 8.6 What are the independence requirements of SEC-imposed monitors?	8-15
Monitor Retention Agreement	8-16
Q 8.7 What are the key terms of a company-monitor retention agreement?	8-16
Monitor Obligations	8-17
Q 8.8 What are the monitor’s obligations?	8-17
Q 8.8.1 Must the monitor issue a work plan?	8-18
Q 8.8.2 How does the monitor conduct the evaluation?	8-18
Q 8.8.3 Can the monitor rely upon the company’s resources or work product conducted by or on behalf of the company?	8-19
Q 8.8.4 Will the monitor re-investigate the misconduct leading to the appointment?	8-20
Q 8.8.5 What are the monitor’s obligations regarding undisclosed or new misconduct?	8-20
Company Obligations	8-21
Q 8.9 What are the company’s obligations?	8-21
Q 8.9.1 Must the company provide privileged information?	8-22
Q 8.9.2 Is the company required to implement the monitor’s recommendations?	8-22

Table of Contents

Monitor Reports	8-23
Q 8.10 What is a monitor required to report?.....	8-23
Q 8.11 Is the monitor's report confidential?	8-24
Duration of Monitorship	8-25
Q 8.12 How long does the monitor serve?	8-25
Q 8.13 Under what circumstances can the government extend or early terminate a monitorship?	8-26

Chapter 9 Litigating with the SEC

Douglas J. Davison

Forum Selection by the SEC	9-2
Q 9.1 What forums are available to the SEC?.....	9-2
Q 9.2 What factors into the selection of a forum?.....	9-2
Q 9.3 Is the administrative proceeding process constitutional?.....	9-4
Enforcement Actions in Federal Court	9-5
Q 9.4 Is a defendant entitled to a jury trial in federal court actions?	9-5
Q 9.5 What remedies can the SEC pursue in federal court actions?.....	9-5
Q 9.6 Are there statutes of limitations that apply to federal court actions?	9-8
Q 9.7 What are the key litigation considerations in making a Wells submission?.....	9-9
Q 9.8 What are strategies for getting discovery from the SEC?.....	9-11
Q 9.9 How are dispositive motions used in SEC federal court actions?	9-14
Q 9.10 How are experts used in SEC federal court actions?	9-16
Q 9.11 What types of motions in limine are common in SEC federal court actions?	9-17
Q 9.12 What are the consequences of a parallel criminal proceeding?.....	9-18
Q 9.13 How do SEC enforcement actions differ from private lawsuits?.....	9-20
SEC Administrative Proceedings	9-22
Q 9.14 What rules are applied in administrative proceedings?.....	9-22
Q 9.15 How does an administrative proceeding differ from a federal court action?.....	9-22

Q 9.16	What remedies can the SEC pursue in administrative proceedings?	9-24
Q 9.17	What can be expected in administrative proceedings?	9-27
Q 9.18	What is the process for challenging administrative orders?	9-29

Chapter 10 Negotiating Settlements with the SEC

Alex Lipman

Recent Developments	10-2
Q 10.1 What recent developments have impacted the negotiation of settlements?	10-2
Settlement Process	10-7
Q 10.2 What is the process by which the Staff obtains approval to settle a matter?	10-7
Q 10.3 What are some of the differences between entities and individuals in considering settlement?	10-8
Q 10.4 How does the Cooperation Initiative change the settlement landscape for entities?	10-9
Q 10.5 How does the Cooperation Initiative address individuals?	10-10
Q 10.6 How has judicial scrutiny of settlement terms affected settlements?	10-11
Q 10.6.1 What is the role of the court in approving consent judgments?	10-11
Q 10.7 How does the use of the administrative process affect settlements?	10-15
Q 10.7.1 What is the process for settling an administrative action?	10-16
Q 10.7.2 If the Staff indicates that it is recommending that the enforcement action be filed administratively rather than in federal district court, should the respondent give greater consideration to settling?	10-17
Q 10.7.3 What is the impact of factual findings in administrative settlements?	10-18
Q 10.8 With the SEC's focus on individuals, what considerations need to be made when considering a settlement?	10-18
Q 10.9 When does the SEC require a defendant or respondent to admit wrongdoing?	10-19

Table of Contents

Settlement Strategy and Tactics	10-21
Q 10.10 When is the best time to start settlement negotiations?	10-21
Q 10.10.1 Should an attempt be made to preempt a Wells notice by initiating settlement discussions prior to receiving a Wells notice?.....	10-21
Q 10.10.2 What happens if settlement discussions begin during the Wells process?	10-21
Q 10.10.3 Settlement after an enforcement action is filed?	10-22
Q 10.11 What areas should be covered during settlement negotiations?.....	10-22
Q 10.11.1 Discussion of the facts?	10-23
Q 10.11.2 Discussion of legal precedent?	10-23
Q 10.11.3 Discussion of policy?	10-24
Q 10.12 What are the potential charges?.....	10-24
Q 10.13 What are the potential sanctions?	10-24
Q 10.13.1 What are the factors surrounding penalties?	10-24
Q 10.13.2 What are the factors affecting negotiation of disgorgement?	10-25
Q 10.13.3 What should be considered in negotiating remedial undertakings?	10-26
Q 10.13.4 What is a monitorship and is it negotiable?	10-26
Q 10.14 What are the collateral consequences of settling and how can one mitigate the impact of such consequences?	10-26
Q 10.14.1 What are the criminal collateral consequences, if any, of admitting liability?.....	10-28
Q 10.14.2 Will the settled final judgment and consent be admissible in related proceedings?	10-28
Q 10.15 What is a settling party permitted to say about the SEC's allegations after settling on a neither-admit-nor-deny basis?	10-30

Chapter 11 Public Disclosure of SEC Enforcement Actions and Investigations

David M. Stuart

Disclosure by the SEC	11-2
Q 11.1 Will the SEC disclose the existence of an investigation?.....	11-2
Q 11.2 Even if the SEC does not disclose the existence of an investigation, are there other ways in which the investigation may become public or disclosed to others?	11-3

Disclosure by Public Companies	11-4
Q 11.3 When is a public company required to disclose a government investigation in a public filing?	11-4
Q 11.4 For public companies, what statutory and regulatory authority should be considered in evaluating whether a disclosure is necessary in a registration statement, periodic report or proxy statement?	11-6
Q 11.5 For public companies, what rules govern whether a disclosure is required before the next periodic filing?	11-9
Q 11.6 What if a company determines that there are no events requiring disclosure, but wishes, nonetheless, to speak about the investigation?	11-12
Q 11.7 What factors should be considered in determining whether the investigation is material?	11-12
Q 11.8 What disclosure obligations are imposed by the securities exchanges in their listing requirements?	11-14
Q 11.9 Are there circumstances when a public company may be required to disclose issues related to an SEC investigation in its financial statements?	11-14
Q 11.10 When a public company is considering disclosure, what is the significance of the fact that an investigation is “informal”?	11-16
Q 11.11 What is the significance of the fact that an investigation is “formal”?	11-16
Q 11.12 Are public companies required to disclose a Wells notice?	11-16
Q 11.13 Even if there is no requirement to disclose an investigation, are there strategic reasons for doing so?	11-18
Q 11.14 What considerations should be made regarding the content of the disclosure?	11-18
Q 11.15 Should disclosure of an investigation be pre-cleared with the Enforcement Staff?	11-19
Q 11.16 What are the potential adverse consequences of a disclosure?	11-20
Q 11.17 How should a company prepare for the potential adverse consequences of a disclosure?	11-21
Q 11.18 What are the potential adverse consequences of not disclosing an investigation?	11-21
Q 11.19 How should a public company respond to press or analyst inquiries once an investigation is disclosed?	11-22
Q 11.20 What special considerations are there for foreign private issuers?	11-23

Table of Contents

Disclosure by Regulated Entities	11-23
Q 11.21 Are there special disclosure requirements for regulated entities?	11-23
Disclosure by Individuals	11-24
Q 11.22 What disclosure requirements exist for individuals?	11-24
Q 11.22.1 ... for accountants?	11-24
Q 11.22.2 ... for attorneys?	11-25
Q 11.22.3 ... for financial professionals?	11-26
Q 11.22.4 ... for officers and directors of public companies?	11-26
Enforcement of Non-Disclosure	11-27
Q 11.23 Has the SEC brought enforcement actions based on a failure to disclose adequately an investigation?	11-27

Chapter 12 Multinational Aspects of SEC Investigations

Edward T. Kang & Paul N. Monnin

Methods of Conducting Multinational Investigations	12-2
Q 12.1 What is the SEC's subpoena power in multinational investigations, at home and abroad?	12-2
Q 12.2 How do regulatory agencies typically gather evidence when conducting multinational investigations?	12-3
Q 12.3 What other types of international agreements assist regulatory agencies in gathering evidence in multinational investigations?	12-4
Q 12.4 How can a regulatory agency obtain evidence in the absence of a treaty?	12-5
Privilege Considerations When Conducting Cross-Border Investigations	12-6
Q 12.5 What protection do privileged communications receive in cross-border investigations?	12-6
Q 12.6 When does U.S. privilege law apply to a foreign communication involving an attorney admitted or located in a foreign jurisdiction?	12-7
Q 12.7 Would courts in the EU apply the attorney-client privilege to communications between a U.S. attorney and a client in the EU?	12-9

SEC COMPLIANCE AND ENFORCEMENT AB 2021

Q 12.8	Would a U.S. court consider the privilege waived for documents produced in response to a request from the European Commission or from some other foreign enforcement agency?	12-10
Document Production/Data Privacy Considerations		12-12
Q 12.9	What is data privacy and why is it important when undertaking cross-border investigations?	12-12
Q 12.10	Does the United States have a data privacy law?	12-12
Q 12.11	What kind of liability can an individual face for violating Regulation S-P?	12-13
Q 12.12	What liability do parties face in connection with violations of data privacy regulations of foreign jurisdictions?	12-14
Q 12.13	In securities enforcement actions, will European Union privacy law apply to production of documents that are located in the EU?	12-14
Q 12.13.1	How does the GDPR apply to document production in securities enforcement actions?	12-15
Q 12.13.2	What are key privacy issues associated with document discovery involving EU documents and records?	12-16
Q 12.13.3	Do blocking statutes play a role in ensuring GDPR compliance in EU document discovery?	12-26
Q 12.13.4	Do GDPR rules apply within the United Kingdom?	12-26
Q 12.14	How does Russian privacy law apply to document production in connection with securities enforcement actions?	12-27
Q 12.15	Do other foreign laws affect the collection and use of information besides those relating to the protection of PII?	12-29
Q 12.16	How does one typically comply with conflicting obligations to produce documents to the SEC and the data protection laws in foreign jurisdictions?	12-30
Q 12.17	Does the United States defer to foreign blocking statutes?	12-30
Global Coordination		12-31
Q 12.18	How have international investigations changed in the wake of the financial crisis?	12-31
Q 12.19	What particular challenges do practitioners face in light of the increased international cooperation amongst regulators?	12-34
Q 12.20	What problems could develop as the SEC and other regulators seek to extend their enforcement of U.S. securities laws outside the borders of the United States?	12-36

Table of Contents

Q 12.21	What areas outside of securities regulation have experienced a rise in international cooperation between regulators?.....	12-38
Q 12.22	What areas beyond corruption prevention have experienced a rise in international cooperation among regulators?.....	12-41
Appendix 12A	Current Signatories of the IOSCO MOU	App. 12A-1

Chapter 13 Foreign Corrupt Practices Act Investigations

Richard W. Grime

Scope of the FCPA	13-2
Q 13.1	Briefly, what does the FCPA do?	13-2
Q 13.2	What conduct does the anti-bribery provision cover?	13-3
Q 13.2.1	What is an “issuer” and how do the anti-bribery provisions apply to issuers?	13-3
Q 13.2.2	What is a “domestic concern” and how do the anti-bribery provisions apply to domestic concerns?	13-4
Q 13.2.3	How do the anti-bribery provisions apply to U.S. citizens?	13-5
Q 13.2.4	How do the anti-bribery provisions apply to foreign non-residents?	13-5
Q 13.2.5	How do the anti-bribery provisions apply to officers, directors, employees, agents, and stockholders?.....	13-6
Q 13.3	What conduct do the accounting provisions cover?.....	13-6
Q 13.3.1	How do the accounting provisions apply to companies?.....	13-6
Q 13.3.2	How do the accounting provisions apply to individuals?	13-7
Jurisdiction of the FCPA and Related Statutes	13-8
Q 13.4	Are there limits to the FCPA’s jurisdiction?.....	13-8
Q 13.5	How do the SEC and DOJ seek to apply the law’s jurisdiction to cover commercial bribery or government entities?	13-10
Q 13.5.1	How has the Travel Act been used?.....	13-10
Q 13.5.2	How have the FCPA’s accounting provisions been used?	13-12
Q 13.5.3	How do regulators handle payments made to foreign government entities but not to individual officials?.....	13-13

SEC COMPLIANCE AND ENFORCEMENT AB 2021

Q 13.6	What other laws does corruption implicate?	13-13
Q 13.6.1	How do mail and wire fraud laws relate to the FCPA?.....	13-13
Q 13.6.2	How are conspiracy charges used in anti-bribery enforcement?	13-15
Q 13.6.3	What do anti-money laundering laws cover, and how do they relate to the FCPA?	13-15
Q 13.6.4	How do the antifraud provisions of the Exchange Act relate to the FCPA?	13-16
FCPA Exceptions and Defenses		13-17
Q 13.7	What are exceptions and defenses to the FCPA's prohibitions?.....	13-17
Q 13.7.1	Are facilitation payments permissible under the FCPA?.....	13-17
Q 13.7.2	Is paying certain “reasonable and bona fide” travel expenses of a foreign official a violation of the FCPA?.....	13-18
Q 13.7.3	Are payments made pursuant to a contract with a foreign government or agency a violation of the FCPA?.....	13-20
Q 13.7.4	Are all gifts and entertainment of foreign officials prohibited by the FCPA?.....	13-21
Q 13.7.5	Are payments made to a foreign official as a result of extortion or duress prohibited by the FCPA?.....	13-22
Q 13.7.6	Can acts that are lawful under local law violate the FCPA?.....	13-22
FCPA Internal Investigations		13-23
Q 13.8	Should an investigation be conducted at all?	13-23
Q 13.9	Is it important to understand “local law” issues?	13-24
Q 13.10	Beyond the initial allegations, how far should a company investigate FCPA allegations?	13-25
Q 13.11	What constitutes “anything of value”?	13-27
Q 13.12	What satisfies the business purpose test?.....	13-27
Q 13.12.1	How does one determine who is a “foreign official”?	13-28
Q 13.12.2	How do U.S. enforcement agencies define “instrumentality” of a foreign government?.....	13-29
Q 13.12.3	How have courts defined “instrumentality” of a foreign government?	13-29
Q 13.12.4	How does the Esquenazi opinion affect decisions about scoping FCPA investigations?	13-31

Table of Contents

Q 13.13	How does the government obtain evidence in the United States in FCPA investigations?.....	13-32
Q 13.13.1	When and why do companies make voluntary disclosures?	13-33
Q 13.13.2	How does the government use informal requests and subpoenas to gather information about potential FCPA violations?	13-41
Q 13.14	How does the government obtain evidence outside of the United States in FCPA investigations?	13-42
Q 13.14.1	How does the government use MLATs?.....	13-43
Q 13.14.2	How does the government use MOUs?.....	13-43
Q 13.14.3	How does the government use letters rogatory?.....	13-47
Q 13.14.4	How does the government use ad hoc agreements?	13-47
Q 13.14.5	How does the government use voluntary disclosure or cooperation?	13-48
Q 13.15	What does the government typically expect of companies during an FCPA investigation?	13-48
Q 13.16	How does the government assess a company's compliance program?	13-52
Q 13.17	Are there specialized resources that are useful in FCPA cases?.....	13-53

Chapter 14 Insider Trading Investigations

Stephen J. Crimmins

Elements of Insider Trading	14-2
Q 14.1	What are the key elements of insider trading?.....	14-2
Q 14.1.1	What is “material” information?	14-3
Q 14.1.2	What is “nonpublic” information?.....	14-3
Q 14.1.3	What is the insider’s “duty of trust or confidence”?.....	14-4
Application to Corporate “Outsiders”	14-4
Q 14.2	Under what circumstances may corporate outsiders be charged for insider trading?.....	14-4
Q 14.2.1	What is the “misappropriation” theory?	14-4
Q 14.2.2	What is a “tippee” and how can liability be imposed on tippees?.....	14-6
Q 14.2.3	Is there liability for deceptively hacking or stealing information?.....	14-7

SEC COMPLIANCE AND ENFORCEMENT AB 2021

Tender Offers	14-9
Q 14.3 How can liability be imposed in the context of a tender offer?.....	14-9
Investigative Techniques and Tools	14-10
Q 14.4 What investigative techniques and tools are used by the SEC and DOJ in insider trading cases?.....	14-10
Q 14.5 How are possible insider trading matters generally uncovered?.....	14-10
Q 14.6 How does the SEC investigate insider trading cases?	14-10
Q 14.6.1 What SEC units are involved in insider trading investigations?.....	14-12
Q 14.7 What role does DOJ play in insider trading investigations?.....	14-12
Q 14.8 How does the SEC work with foreign regulators on cross-border insider trading cases?.....	14-13
Potential Defendants	14-14
Q 14.9 Who may be charged with insider trading?.....	14-14
Q 14.9.1 How does liability attach to supervisors and control persons?.....	14-16
Q 14.9.2 What are relief defendants?	14-16
Defenses	14-17
Q 14.10 Should a target of an insider trading investigation provide an SEC interview or testimony?.....	14-17
Q 14.11 How can counsel present defenses to the staff during insider trading investigations?.....	14-18
Q 14.12 What are some principal defenses to insider trading allegations?.....	14-19
Sanctions and Remedies	14-21
Q 14.13 What “emergency” steps can the SEC take to protect trading profits?	14-21
Q 14.14 What remedies can the SEC seek in its insider trading cases?	14-22
Q 14.15 What are the SEC’s typical settlement terms for insider trading?.....	14-24

Table of Contents

Compliance Programs	14-25
Q 14.16 Why should entities have an insider trading compliance program?	14-25
Q 14.16.1 What are recommended elements of an insider trading compliance program?.....	14-25
Q 14.16.2 What special considerations apply in dealing with expert networks and other research providers?.....	14-27

Chapter 15 Accounting and Financial Reporting Investigations

David M. Stuart

Detection of Accounting Fraud	15-2
Q 15.1 When does the SEC initiate accounting and financial reporting investigations?.....	15-2
Investigative Process	15-3
Q 15.2 In a financial reporting or accounting investigation, what types of requests should the company expect?	15-3
Q 15.3 What role does a company's audit committee have in accounting fraud investigations?	15-4
Types of Accounting Cases	15-5
Q 15.4 What types of accounting issue lead to SEC investigations?.....	15-5
Revenue Recognition	15-5
Q 15.5 What issues have formed the basis for improper revenue recognition cases?.....	15-5
Q 15.5.1 How might side agreements result in improper revenue recognition?	15-5
Q 15.5.2 What revenue recognition issues have arisen with multiple element contracts?.....	15-6
Q 15.5.3 What revenue recognition issues have arisen in leasing arrangements?.....	15-6
Q 15.5.4 What revenue recognition issues have arisen in "bill-and-hold" or "ship-and-store" transactions?	15-7
Q 15.5.5 What is "channel stuffing"?	15-7
Q 15.5.6 How else might revenue be accelerated?.....	15-7
Q 15.5.7 What financial disclosure and internal controls issues might arise in revenue acceleration cases?	15-8

SEC COMPLIANCE AND ENFORCEMENT AB 2021

Expense Recognition	15-9
Q 15.6 What is improper expense recognition?.....	15-9
Reserves	15-9
Q 15.7 What is reserve manipulation?	15-9
Off-Balance Sheet Transactions	15-10
Q 15.8 What are improper off-balance sheet transactions?.....	15-10
Fair Value Reporting	15-10
Q 15.9 What is improper fair value reporting?	15-10
Other Issues	15-11
Q 15.10 What other accounting issues have arisen in enforcement cases?.....	15-11
Securities Laws Violations in Accounting Cases	15-12
Q 15.11 Which provisions of the federal securities laws typically are at issue in accounting and financial reporting cases?	15-12
Q 15.11.1 Which provisions of the federal securities laws impose liability for intentionally misreporting financial results?.....	15-12
Q 15.11.2 Which provisions of the federal securities laws impose liability for reporting violations?.....	15-14
Q 15.11.3 Which provisions of the federal securities laws impose liability for internal controls violations?	15-14
Q 15.11.4 Which provisions of the federal securities laws impose liability for books and records violations?.....	15-14
Q 15.11.5 Which provisions of the federal securities laws impose liability for misleading the independent auditor?.....	15-15
Q 15.11.6 Which provisions of the federal securities laws impose liability for making false certifications?.....	15-15
Materiality Analysis	15-16
Q 15.12 What is the importance of a materiality analysis in accounting fraud matters?	15-16
Individual Liability	15-17
Q 15.13 On which individuals does the SEC usually focus in accounting fraud investigations?	15-17

Table of Contents

Sanctions and Remedies	15-18
Q 15.14 What sanctions might the SEC seek in a financial reporting or accounting fraud case?.....	15-18
Defenses	15-19
Q 15.14.1 What are some common defensive theories in financial reporting or accounting cases?	15-19

Chapter 16 Market Manipulation Investigations

Joseph Dever & John W. R. Murray

Relevant Statutory Provisions	16-3
Q 16.1 Which provisions of the federal securities laws govern illegal market manipulation?.....	16-3
Q 16.1.1 What is prohibited under section 9(a) of the Exchange Act?.....	16-3
Q 16.1.2 What is prohibited by section 10(b) of the Exchange Act and Rule 10b-5?	16-5
Q 16.1.3 What is prohibited by section 17(a) of the Securities Act?	16-6
Q 16.1.4 What is prohibited by section 5 of the Securities Act?.....	16-7
Manipulative Trading Activity	16-7
Q 16.2 What types of trading activity does the SEC charge as illegal market manipulation?.....	16-7
Q 16.2.1 What are “wash sales” and “matched orders”?	16-7
Q 16.2.2 What is a “pump and dump”?	16-8
Q 16.2.3 What are “touting” and “scalping”?.....	16-11
Q 16.2.4 What is “parking”?.....	16-13
Q 16.2.5 What is “spoofing” or “layering”?.....	16-14
Q 16.2.6 What are “marking the close” and “painting the tape”?	16-16
Q 16.2.7 What is “cross-market manipulation”?	16-17
Open-Market Manipulation Under Section 10(b) and Rule 10b-5	16-17
Q 16.3 What is illegal “open-market” manipulation?	16-17
Q 16.3.1 What have the courts held to be illegal open-market manipulation?	16-18

Q 16.3.2	What is the holding in Markowski v. SEC and why is it important?	16-19
Q 16.3.3	What is the holding in GFL v. Colkitt and why is it important?	16-20
Defenses to Open-Market Manipulation Investigations		16-22
Q 16.4	What defenses are available in an open-market manipulation investigation?.....	16-22
Q 16.4.1	Can the absence of false statements be a defense?	16-22
Q 16.4.2	Can full disclosures about the trading activity be a defense?.....	16-24
Q 16.4.3	Can use of a legitimate trading strategy be a defense?	16-25
Q 16.4.4	Can a business or investment purpose be a defense?	16-25
Investigative Technique and Tools		16-27
Q 16.5	How does the SEC investigate market manipulation schemes?	16-27
Q 16.5.1	What is the significance of FINRA referrals?	16-27
Q 16.5.2	What are bluesheets?.....	16-28
Q 16.5.3	What function do stock transfer records serve?.....	16-28

Chapter 17 Cryptocurrency and Securities Offering Investigations

Gregory S. Bruch

Relevant Statutory Provisions		17-3
Q 17.1	What laws and regulations impose liability for offering fraud?.....	17-3
Q 17.2	What does section 5 of the Securities Act require?	17-3
Q 17.3	Why is section 17(a) considered a broad-based enforcement tool in offering fraud cases?.....	17-4
Offering Fraud Activity		17-4
Q 17.4	What are some examples of classic offering fraud cases?	17-4
Q 17.4.1	What are Ponzi schemes?.....	17-5
Q 17.4.2	What are boiler rooms?	17-6
Q 17.4.3	What are pump and dump schemes?	17-7
Q 17.5	When are charges brought for registration statement violations?	17-8

Table of Contents

Q 17.6	What kinds of offering fraud cases has the Commission authorized related to ICOs?	17-9
Q 17.7	Will the Commission authorize offering fraud cases for negligent conduct?	17-13
Q 17.8	Have there been any offering fraud cases related to crowdfunding?	17-13
Q 17.9	What does the SEC consider a material misrepresentation or omission in offering fraud?	17-14
Q 17.10	What is “gun jumping”?	17-15
Individual Liability		17-16
Q 17.11	Who does the SEC hold liable for offering fraud?	17-16
Q 17.11.1	Can board members be charged with offering fraud?	17-17
Q 17.11.2	Have broker-dealers been charged with offering fraud?	17-18
Document Requests in Offering Fraud Investigations		17-18
Q 17.12	What kinds of documents will the SEC seek in an offering fraud investigation?	17-18
Sanctions and Remedies		17-19
Q 17.13	What remedies are available to the SEC in offering fraud cases?	17-19
Q 17.14	How does the SEC calculate monetary sanctions in offering fraud cases?	17-22
Q 17.15	What are the collateral consequences of settling an SEC enforcement action based on offering fraud?	17-23
Q 17.16	When will the SEC seek an admission of guilt in SEC offering fraud settlements?	17-24
Impact on Private Litigation		17-24
Q 17.17	How will an SEC offering fraud settlement affect private litigation?	17-24
Chapter 18 Cybersecurity Issues
Mary P. Hansen & Mauro M. Wolfe
Q 18.1	What are the origins of the SEC’s focus on cybersecurity?	18-2
Q 18.2	What is the mission of the Cyber Unit?	18-2
Q 18.3	What SEC regulations address the cybersecurity obligations of regulated entities?	18-3

Q 18.4	What guidance has the SEC provided to regulated entities with respect to compliance with Regulations SP and S-ID?	18-4
Q 18.5	What are some examples of Enforcement cases brought against regulated entities following cyber breaches?	18-5
Q 18.6	What additional guidance has been provided to regulated entities on cybersecurity?	18-6
Q 18.7	What SEC laws and regulations address the cybersecurity obligations of self-regulatory organizations?.....	18-8
Q 18.8	What is the SEC's basis for investigating cybersecurity incidents at public companies?	18-8

Chapter 19 Investigations and Inspections of Regulated Entities

Richard D. Marshall

Relevant Statutory and Regulatory Provisions	19-2
Q 19.1	What special regulatory requirements apply to regulated entities?	19-2
Q 19.1.1	... to broker-dealers?	19-2
Q 19.1.2	... to investment advisers?.....	19-3
Q 19.1.3	... to investment companies?	19-4
Q 19.2	What are the supervisory and compliance obligations of regulated entities?.....	19-5
Q 19.2.1	What is the duty to supervise?.....	19-5
Q 19.2.2	Who is a supervisor?	19-5
Q 19.2.3	What conduct constitutes a failure to supervise?	19-8
Q 19.2.4	What constitutes failure to respond to “red flags”?.....	19-9
Q 19.2.5	What constitutes a failure to investigate and to respond?	19-10
Q 19.2.6	How can one establish the adequate supervision defense?.....	19-11
Q 19.2.7	What must a firm do to prevent misuse of material non-public information?	19-15
Q 19.2.8	What are some theories of secondary liability other than failure to supervise?	19-16
Q 19.2.9	What are aiding, abetting, and causing violations?	19-16
Q 19.2.10	What is control person liability?	19-17
Q 19.3	What obligations are imposed by the compliance rules?	19-18
Q 19.3.1	What compliance obligations are imposed relating to personal trading by supervised persons?	19-20

Table of Contents

Q 19.3.2	What is the overlap of the duty to supervise and the compliance rules?.....	19-21
Q 19.3.3	Is there a duty to investigate and respond to possible misconduct?.....	19-21
Investigative Tools and Techniques		19-23
SEC Inspections		19-23
Q 19.4	How do SEC enforcement investigations of regulated entities begin?.....	19-23
Q 19.4.1	From where does the SEC derive its power to inspect regulated entities?.....	19-23
Q 19.4.2	Are there any limitations on the SEC's inspection powers?	19-25
Q 19.4.3	What are the organization and goals of the SEC's inspection program?.....	19-28
Q 19.4.4	How does the SEC target inspections of regulated entities?.....	19-30
Q 19.4.5	How does the SEC conduct inspections of regulated entities?.....	19-32
Q 19.4.6	What are the possible outcomes of SEC examinations?.....	19-35
FINRA Inspections		19-36
Q 19.5	How does FINRA conduct inspections?.....	19-36
Conduct During an Inspection		19-37
Q 19.6	What are best practices to follow during an inspection?.....	19-37
Q 19.7	How should a regulated entity respond to a regulatory crisis?.....	19-41
Sanctions and Remedies		19-45
Q 19.8	What special remedies are available against regulated entities?	19-45
Q 19.8.1	Can the SEC litigate enforcement actions before its administrative law judges?.....	19-47
Q 19.8.2	How can relief from bars be obtained?.....	19-48
Q 19.8.3	What are statutory disqualifications?	19-48
Q 19.8.4	What is the disqualification from acting as a solicitor for an adviser?.....	19-50
Q 19.8.5	What disqualifications apply to "bad actors" in private placements?.....	19-50

SEC COMPLIANCE AND ENFORCEMENT AB 2021

Q 19.8.6	What disqualifications are triggered by injunctions under section 9(a) under the Investment Company Act?.....	19-52
Disclosure Obligations		19-53
Q 19.9	What special disclosure obligations apply to regulated entities?.....	19-53
Parallel Investigations		19-53
Q 19.10	What rules govern parallel SEC and other investigations?.....	19-53
Q 19.10.1	What special challenges arise from parallel FINRA and SEC investigations?.....	19-53
Q 19.10.2	What special issues arise from parallel state investigations?.....	19-54
Q 19.10.3	What special issues arise from CFA Institute inquiries?.....	19-55
Q 19.10.4	What does the CFA Institute do to monitor candidate and member behavior?	19-55
Q 19.10.5	What does the CFA Institute do to investigate allegations?	19-55
Q 19.10.6	How does the CFA Institute conduct disciplinary proceedings?.....	19-56
Q 19.10.7	How does the CFA Institute implement disciplinary sanctions when needed?	19-56

Chapter 20 Special Issues in Investigations of Accountants

Russell G. Ryan

Principal Liability Concerns for Accountants		20-3
Q 20.1	What are the common types of violations investigated by the SEC involving accountants?	20-3
Q 20.1.1	How may an accountant be held liable for securities fraud violations?.....	20-3
Q 20.1.2	How may an accountant be held liable for SEC reporting, books-and-records, and internal-controls violations?	20-5
Q 20.1.3	What Sarbanes-Oxley certifications are accountants responsible for?.....	20-6

Table of Contents

Q 20.1.4	What auditor independence standards are accountants subject to?	20-7
Q 20.1.5	What must accountants do to comply with Exchange Act section 10A?	20-11
Q 20.2	What types of sanctions and remedies does the SEC typically seek against accountants?	20-12
SEC Rule 102(e)		20-13
Q 20.3	What is SEC Rule 102(e)?.....	20-13
Q 20.4	What is “improper professional conduct” by an accountant under Rule 102(e)?.....	20-15
Q 20.5	What does it mean for an accountant to “appear and practice before the Commission” under Rule 102(e)?.....	20-16
Q 20.6	How and by whom are Rule 102(e) proceedings initiated?.....	20-17
Q 20.7	What are the procedural rules and the due process afforded in a Rule 102(e) proceeding?	20-18
Q 20.8	Under what circumstances will the SEC charge an accounting firm for the conduct of its individual partners or employees?.....	20-19
Q 20.9	What are some special collateral consequences for an accountant that could result from an SEC investigation or enforcement action?	20-19
The PCAOB		20-20
Q 20.10	What is the PCAOB?.....	20-20
Q 20.11	What jurisdiction and power does the PCAOB have over accountants?	20-20
Record Retention and SEC and PCAOB Investigative Access to Audit Documentation		20-23
Q 20.12	To what extent can the SEC and PCAOB obtain access to the workpapers of auditors and their foreign affiliates?	20-23

Chapter 21 Special Issues in Investigations of Attorneys

Mark K. Schonfeld

SEC Regulations Concerning Attorney Conduct	21-3
Q 21.1 What standards of professional conduct govern lawyers representing corporate clients before the SEC?.....	21-3
Q 21.1.1 What is an “appropriate response by the CEO or CLO”?	21-4
Q 21.1.2 Are attorneys required to report suspected violations outside the company?	21-5
Q 21.2 What standards apply to lawyers representing parties in SEC investigations?.....	21-6
Rule 102(e) Proceedings Against Attorneys	21-8
Q 21.3 Under what circumstances may an attorney be suspended or barred from practicing before the SEC?	21-8
Q 21.3.1 When will the SEC institute a stand-alone Rule 102(e)(1) proceeding for improper conduct by an attorney?.....	21-9
Q 21.3.2 What standards does the SEC employ in suspending or barring an attorney based on a permanent injunction or a finding of securities laws violations?	21-10
Q 21.3.3 Can an attorney disqualified under Rule 102(e) be reinstated?	21-11
Q 21.4 When will the SEC bring enforcement actions against attorneys for securities law violations?	21-12
Q 21.4.1 What attorney conduct will result in a finding of participation in market manipulation schemes?.....	21-12
Q 21.4.2 When will an attorney representing a corporation run afoul of the rules and invite an SEC investigation?.....	21-14
Q 21.4.3 What conduct constitutes insider trading based on client information?.....	21-15
Q 21.4.4 What special challenges do counsel for regulated entities face?	21-17
Privilege Issues in SEC Investigations of Attorneys	21-18
Q 21.5 Can attorneys refuse to submit evidence protected by attorney-client privilege?.....	21-18
Q 21.5.1 Can an attorney offer exculpatory evidence to the SEC if that information is protected by attorney-client privilege?	21-18

Chapter 22 Special Issues Relating to Whistleblowers

Jordan A. Thomas & Richard A. Levine

Whistleblower Statutes	22-3
Q 22.1 What statutory schemes address whistleblowers in the context of SEC investigations?	22-3
Sarbanes-Oxley	22-4
Q 22.2 Who qualifies as a whistleblower under Sarbanes-Oxley?	22-4
Q 22.3 What qualifies as “protected” whistleblowing?	22-9
Q 22.4 Are directors subject to liability for Sarbanes-Oxley whistleblower claims?	22-10
Q 22.5 What protections and remedies are afforded to a whistleblower under Sarbanes-Oxley?	22-10
Q 22.6 How does a whistleblower pursue retaliation claims under Sarbanes-Oxley?	22-11
Dodd-Frank Act	22-12
Q 22.7 Who qualifies as a whistleblower under the Dodd-Frank Act?	22-12
Q 22.8 How does a whistleblower file a report with the SEC?	22-13
Q 22.9 May a whistleblower file a tip anonymously with the SEC? What other confidentiality provisions apply to SEC whistleblowers?	22-14
Q 22.10 How does the SEC Whistleblower Award process work?	22-15
Q 22.11 What are the requirements under Dodd-Frank for a whistleblower to be eligible for an award?	22-17
Q 22.12 Can corporate officers and directors, compliance personnel, attorneys and auditors be eligible for awards?	22-19
Q 22.13 How do the provisions of the SEC’s rules take into account internal reporting by employee whistleblowers?	22-23
Q 22.14 What monetary awards may whistleblowers obtain under Dodd-Frank?	22-24
Q 22.15 What factors does the Commission consider in determining the amount of whistleblower awards?	22-28
Q 22.16 Who qualifies for anti-retaliation protection under Dodd-Frank?	22-29
Q 22.17 Can a non-U.S. whistleblower qualify for anti-retaliation protection under Dodd-Frank?	22-32

SEC COMPLIANCE AND ENFORCEMENT AB 2021

Q 22.18	What claims may a protected whistleblower pursue under the Dodd-Frank Act for adverse actions taken against the whistleblower?	22-33
Q 22.19	What are the differences between the protections afforded whistleblowers under Sarbanes-Oxley and Dodd-Frank?	22-34
Q 22.20	What claims may the SEC pursue under Dodd-Frank against employers to vindicate the rights of a whistleblower?.....	22-34
Q 22.21	Are mandatory arbitration clauses in employment contracts enforceable?	22-38
Policy Issues	22-40
Q 22.22	Does the SEC Staff communicate directly with whistleblowers who are current employees?	22-40
Q 22.23	How does the SEC Staff handle corporate documents provided by a whistleblower? In particular, what steps does the SEC Staff take to ensure that it does not receive documents protected by the attorney-client privilege?.....	22-40
Q 22.24	Does the fact that the SEC’s investigation began as a result of a whistleblower or otherwise benefited from information provided by a whistleblower affect the traditional Seaboard cooperation credit analysis?	22-41
Best Practices	22-43
Q 22.25	What are some “best practices” for handling reports of possible violations made by employees?	22-43
Index	I-1