

Table of Contents

About the Authors	vii
Preface	xi
Acknowledgments	xiii
Part I Foundations	1
Introduction	3
Chapter 1 From Colorado to Kansas: A Legal Writer's Journey	13
Chapter 2 A Writer's Principles: Beyond Logic to Coherence	31
Part II Creating Organizational Coherence	59
Chapter 3 Applying Principle 1: Creating Containers	61
Chapter 4 Applying Principle 2: Making the Structure Explicit	97
Chapter 5 Applying Principle 3: Making Form Match Substance: Avoiding Organizational Traps	137
Chapter 6 Writing Effective Introductions: Making Readers Smart, Attentive, and Comfortable	175
Part III Types of Legal Writing	197
Chapter 7 Emails, Letters, and Legal Memoranda	199
Chapter 8 The Art of Persuasion: Lessons from Posner, Aristotle, and Toulmin	229
Chapter 9 Briefs	253
Chapter 10 Judicial Opinions	307

Part IV	Creating Coherence on the Small Scale	343
Chapter 11	Paragraphs: Focus, Flow, and Emphasis	345
Chapter 12	Sentences: The Wages of Syntax	383
Chapter 13	Words: Precision and Brevity	433
Chapter 14	Style: Energy and Character	449
Part V	Thinking Like an Editor	473
Chapter 15	Overcoming the Dr. Strangelove Syndrome: Editing Yourself and Others	475